The Company agrees to recognize the above mentioned Stewards upon receipt of notice in writing. The duties of the Steward shall be to assist employees working in the department which he represents, in presenting their grievance to the designated representative of the Company, in the following manner:

Step No. 1

The matter will first be taken up by the employees with the Shift Foreman or Department Head, accompanied by the Department Steward. If the Department Steward is not available, then the Chief Steward shall attend, if available and production requirements allow. Such decision (on production requirements) shall not be made in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

No grievance shall be considered where the events giving rise to it occurred or originated more than three (3) full working days before the filing of the grievance. In the case of a monetary grievance the above noted period will be extended to seven (7) working days.

Step No. 2

If the grievance is not settled by the shift foreman or department head within three (3) working days, it will then be written out on forms to be provided for that purpose, and returned to the shift foreman/department head within two (2) working days. The grievance will then be referred to the Personnel Manager who, with the Chief Steward, grievor and department steward, if necessary, will meet and discuss the grievance with the employee.

Step No. 3

If the parties are unable to agree on a third member of the Board they shall jointly apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint a third member (Chairman of the Board).

8.03 The expenses of the third member of the Board shall be paid jointly by the Company and the Union.

8.04 It is understood that the Board of Arbitration shall have no authority to render any decision which in any way modifies, changes or amends this Agreement.

8.05 The majority decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding upon both parties, if there is no majority, the decision of the Chairman shall govern.

8.06 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 8.01 the Company and the Union may agree in writing upon a single arbitrator who shall have full powers as if he were a board of three arbitrators. The Company and the Union shall share the expense of the single arbitrator equally.

8.07 Within thirty (30) working days of the giving of notice of Arbitration outlined in Article 8.01, the party referring the grievance to Arbitration must submit the name of its nominee to the other party or if it is proposing the appointment of a single Arbitrator under Article 8.06, the name of the Arbitrator it is proposing. Such thirty (30) working day period can be extended upon mutual agreement in writing.

ARTICLE 9 - DISCHARGE CASES

1. Use, being under the influence or possession of alcohol during working hours.
2. Theft.
3. Use, being under the influence or possession of illegal drugs during working hours.

9.02 An employee, having attained seniority, may be discharged for violation of Company rules and/or other just causes. New rules with respect to additional grounds for automatic termination to be added to Article 9.01 must be discussed with the Union and agreed to by the Union before they shall become effective.

9.03 If the employee feels that he has been unjustly dealt with, such discharge will constitute a case coming up under the method of adjustment of grievances. An employee found to be unjustly discharged shall be reinstated to his former position in accordance with the terms of the settlement of the grievance.

9.04 All cases of discharge must be considered and disposed of within ten (10) days from the date of discharge. The foreman shall inform the departmental Steward/Chief Steward/Union Officers when any employee has been discharged. No grievance shall be considered where the events giving rise to it occurred or originated more than three (3) full working days before the filing of the grievance.

9.05 If an employee is required to attend a meeting with management where he/she is to receive a verbal or written warning, suspension or discharge, he/she will be advised of the right to have a Department Steward present. If the employee requests the presence of the Department Steward and the Department Steward is not available, the Chief Steward shall attend if available and production requirements allow. Such decision (on production requirements) shall not be made in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

9.06 No disciplinary notation placed against the record of an employee will be considered for the purpose of progressive discipline after 39 months, provided that there has been no additional discipline against that employee during that period. This provision shall not apply to discipline imposed prior to the date of Ratification.

ARTICLE 10 - POLICY GRIEVANCE

(a) Policy Grievance

The Union may file a Policy Grievance at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure. A Policy Grievance may not be used to bypass the regular Grievance Procedure. A Policy Grievance is defined as one which alleges a violation of a provision of this agreement and which because of the nature or scope of the subject matter, could not otherwise be instituted as an employee grievance. All Policy Grievances shall be signed by the Chief Steward or Business Agent.

(b) Group Grievance

A Group Grievance is defined as one alleging a violation of the Agreement and which concerns more than one (1) employee of the Bargaining Unit. Such grievance should be brought forward in writing at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure. Such grievances will be processed through the balance of the Grievance Procedure and to arbitration in the same way as individual grievance. The names of all the aggrieved employees shall be attached to the written grievance at the time it is filed with the Company as set forth above.

10.02 The time limits as spelled out in any of the above grievance proceedings, is mandatory, but may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties. The parties agree that section 44(6) of the Labour Relations Act does not apply to the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.01 New employees shall be considered on probation and shall not be entitled to seniority rights until they have been employed by the Company for a period of sixty-five (65) worked days within a nine (9) month period. Upon completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be dated from the first date of employment. During an employee's probationary period, he or she shall be considered as being employed on a trial basis and may be discharged or laid off at the discretion of the Company. A worked shift of six and one-half (6 ½) hours constitutes a day worked for the purposes of this Article.

11.02 Seniority shall be on a plant wide basis.

11.03 The Company, shall maintain plant wide seniority lists which will be posted on the bulletin board and the Company will also provide the Chief Steward and the Union office with copies. The seniority list shall be updated at least once every six (6) months. The current seniority list will remain as posted. In the future, if employees start work on the same day then seniority would be in accordance with the month and date of birth.

11.04 The Company shall endeavour to give at least twenty-four (24) hours notice before requiring an employee to commence work on a shift other than his/her regular shift.

11.05 In the case of layoff, job elimination or recall the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) seniority
- (b) skill and qualifications.

Whereas between employees, the factors in (b) are relatively equal in the judgment of the Company, the senior qualified employee shall be retained or recalled as the case may be.

11.06 An employee shall cease to have seniority and his employment shall be terminated for all purposes when he or she:

- (a) voluntarily quits;
- (b) has been laid off for more than twelve (12) consecutive months;
- (c) is discharged and his or her discharge is not reversed through the grievance procedure;
- (d) is absent from work for two (2) consecutive working days without a reason satisfactory to the Company;
- (e) fails to return to work promptly after the expiration of a leave of absence granted to him unless he is excused by the Company;

- (g) fails to report for work within five (5) days of receipt of notice by registered mail to return to work from layoff, unless failure to report is for a justifiable reason.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB POSTING

12.01 A permanent vacancy (which is one which is expected to last for three (3) months or longer) occurring in any job above Class "D" classification shall be posted (posting to include the classification, wage rate and a description of job duties current at that time) on the bulletin board for a period of three (3) working days but not more than three (3) working days. Any employee wishing to apply for such posting will do so during the three (3) working days. Forms for such postings shall be supplied by the Company.

12.02 (a) Without limiting in any way the applications of Articles 12.01, 12.04, 12.05 to other classifications contained in the Collective Agreement the following applies to any Maintenance position.

Because it is a newly created position which specifies a lengthy training period and involves a critical area of plant operation, the Company shall have total discretion in determining the entry requirements for the position and this shall not be the subject of a grievance.

- (b) Line Mechanic

Any Employee awarded the position of Line Mechanic shall serve a forty-five (45) day probation period. During such probation period the employee shall maintain his/her rate if higher than the rate listed on the scale.

During this period the employer shall have the right to end this probation and the employee will have the right to return to their former position as will all other affected employees. Upon completion of the probationary period the employee shall be placed on the scale at the forty-five (45) day level.

12.03 (a) A permanent vacancy for the purposes of a Maintenance Mechanic Trainee or Mechanic, shall be when that job is posted by the Company.

(b) Any employee awarded the position of a Maintenance Mechanic Trainee shall serve a three (3) month probation period. During this period, the Employer shall have the right to end the probation and the employee will return to their previous position as will all other employees affected by the move. The employee shall maintain his/her rate if higher than the rate listed on the scale. Upon completion of the probationary period, the employee shall be placed on the scale at the three (3) month level.

12.04 In selecting applicants for posted jobs, the following factors shall be considered:

- (a) a senior applicant for positions other than those in the Maintenance Department or involved in the installation of new equipment;
- (b) skill and qualifications.

Whereas between employees the factors in (b) are relatively equal in the judgment of the Company, factor (a) shall govern; provided however, that management shall not exercise its judgment in an arbitrary manner. A senior applicant for positions other than those in the maintenance department (excluding line mechanic trainee) or involved in the installation of new equipment who possess the basic qualification relevant for the job but who may not possess superior skill and qualifications to another applicant will receive a reasonable familiarization period of up to five (5) days in the job applied for to determine his suitability for the job provided that within that period if either the employee or the Company removes the employee from the posted position that employee shall have the right to return to his/her previous position. During the five (5) day familiarization period the successful applicant will maintain his/her rate of pay unless he/she has held the position previously through a temporary transfer or permanent posting. A successful applicant shall not apply for another posted position for a period of six (6) months unless the posting is for a higher rated job. However, no further application for any posted position will be made for a period of six (6) months after the second successful posting. The Chief Steward shall be given a copy of all job postings and shall be notified in writing of the successful applicant.

12.05 Jobs temporarily vacant for two (2) months or longer because of authorized leave of absence or other valid reason will be filled in the first instance with the most convenient and qualified person immediately available, but at the next change of schedule, the senior employee with qualifications shall be given the opportunity. This shall not apply to the classifications of Maintenance Mechanic or Maintenance Mechanic Trainee.

12.06 Positions outside the bargaining unit do not come within the scope of this Agreement. However, for purposes of maintaining seniority in the Bargaining Unit, an employee accepting promotion or transfer out of the Bargaining Unit shall be subject to a probationary period of twelve (12) weeks. During this period, either the Company or the employee shall have the right to decide the suitability of the transfer. If the probationary period agreed upon is exceeded, the employee will upon returning to the Bargaining Unit, be employed as a new hire in the General Help or Packer classification and will not be permitted to exercise job bidding provision until a further six (6) months has elapsed.

12.07 An employee on approved leave of absence or vacation for a period in excess of three (3) working days may, prior to the start of the leave of absence or vacation submit a list to the Personnel Department and a copy to the Chief Steward indicating those jobs in order of preference for which they wish to apply if a permanent vacancy occurs during their leave of absence or vacation. Notice to the Chief Steward of such employee's successful application will be deemed to be notice to the employee.

If a permanent vacancy on the list occurs during his absence he shall be deemed to have applied and will be assessed in accordance with this Article and if his application is successful and the expected date of his return is within five (5) working days from the date the job is required by the Company to be filled, he will be transferred to such vacancy upon his return to work and the job vacancy will be filled by a temporary transfer until that time. This does not include the following classifications: Maintenance Mechanic, Electrician, Welder and Line Mechanic.

12.08 (a) Any employee with less than twelve (12) months of seniority who is the successful applicant to a job posting will receive the rate of pay as per the scale for that classification unless said employee has the skill and qualification as determined by the Company.

(b) Any employee who has twelve (12) months or more seniority, and who has been awarded a new position, (except a maintenance position), shall maintain their current wage rate for the first three (3) months. Upon completion of three (3) months the employee shall be paid the twelve (12) month rate as outlined in the Collective Agreement.

12.09 Any written test used by the company shall be relevant and reasonable.

ARTICLE 13 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

13.01 Leave of absence to attend Union conventions, courses and conferences will be granted without pay, and without loss of seniority provided that notice of one (1) week is given to the Company and provided that not more than one (1) employee is missing from any Department at a given time.

13.02 Leave of absence shall mean an absence from work requested by an employee in writing and consented to by the Company. Leave granted shall be in writing covering a specific period of time. Leave of absence shall be permissive only and shall be without pay or any other form of compensation, and the employee shall not work in any other position during such leave of absence unless agreed to by the Company in writing.

13.03 If an employee is unable to return to work at the expiry of his/her leave of absence, they shall, unless it is impossible to do so, notify the Department Manager three (3) full days in advance of the expected date of return.

13.04 An employee who has acquired at least three (3) years seniority will be allowed up to four (4) weeks leave of absence plus two (2) weeks of their vacation for overseas travel. Employees granted a leave of absence will be required to use up their complete vacation entitlement prior to the commencement of any leave. During July and August each classification shall be allowed leave of absence and/or vacation for up to fifteen percent (15%) of the employees in that classification provided it does not affect the efficient operation of the Company. If an employee overstays his leave of absence, he is presumed to have severed employment with the Company unless he can give an explanation satisfactory to the Company for his inability to return to work on the expiry date of his leave of absence. The scheduling of the first two (2) weeks of vacation shall take precedence over applications for a leave of absence. Once granted, no leave of absence will be allowed again for a period of three (3) years.

13.05 Any leave of absence shall be in writing and no such leave of absence shall affect any employee's seniority rights when used for the purpose granted provided he returns to work at the expiration of his leave.

13.06 An employee who works for another employer, without the Company's permission, while on leave of absence, will be deemed to have left the employ of the Company.

13.07 If an employee who has had a leave of absence within the previous calendar year requests a leave of absence, other applicants in his or her Department shall be given priority over him or her.

13.08 The Union agrees to co-operate with the Company in preventing abuses of the foregoing leave of absence provisions.

13.09 The Company will pay eight (8) hours pay at the employee's rate for each day spent in negotiations and time is lost. It is understood that the negotiating committee for the purposes of this Article shall consist of not more than four (4) employees and they shall not be
