ARTICLE 1 – RECOGNITION AND SCOPE

- 1.01 The Company agrees to recognize the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for employees covered by this agreement.
- 1.02 This Agreement shall apply to all craft and services employees of the company described in Attachment "A" and employed by the Company in Ontario.

When the parties mutually agree that a new occupation established during the term of this agreement has clearly a number of significant points in common with other occupations within the unit, such new occupation shall fall within the scope of this agreement.

ARTICLE 2 – DISCRIMINATION/ RESPECT IN THE WORKPLACE

- 2.01 The Company will not discriminate against an employee because of membership in the Union or activity authorized herein on behalf of the Union.

- 2.02 The Company and the Union agree that they will not threaten, intimidate or unlawfully discriminate against an employee for reasons of that employee's pregnancy, age, marital status, disability, sex, sexual orientation, race, creed, colour, and national origin, political affiliation with a legitimate political party or for exercising any rights under this Collective Agreement.
- 2.03 The Company and the Union are committed to working together to ensure a workplace which is free from harassment. The parties further agree that no employee should be subjected to racial or sexual harassment or shall be required to tolerate being subjected to such harassment while at work.
- 2.04 Use in this Agreement of masculine or feminine gender shall be construed as including both male and female employees, and not as specific sex designations.

ARTICLE 3 – DEDUCTIONS

Union Dues

- 3.01 Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Company will deduct an amount equivalent to the regular monthly union dues from the pay of all employees in the bargaining unit. All present employees shall pay union dues and all employees hired or transferred into the bargaining unit shall pay union dues within thirty (30) days of their hiring or transfer, as a condition of employment.
- 3.02 The Company agrees that through the payroll process they will deduct, in equal instalments, the regular dues of the Union.
- 3.03 As soon as possible after the end of each month, the Company will remit to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union by cheque, the amount so deducted. In addition, the Company will provide a list where possible by Local, showing the amount deducted from each employee. It is the responsibility of the Union to notify the Company, on a form approved by the Company, of the Local to which each employee pays dues.

- 3.04 The amount of regular monthly union dues shall be such amount as may from time to time be certified to the Company for each Local by the Secretary-Treasurer of the National Union.
- 3.05 Regular monthly union dues means the dues established by each Local as the monthly dues payable and shall not include any other amount such as initiation fee, insurance premium or special levy.

Unifor Social Justice Fund

- 3.06 (a) The Company will deduct on behalf of all employees in the bargaining unit, an amount from their pay equivalent to one cent per regular hour worked for the purposes of the Unifor Social Justice Fund. Where an employee objects to the above-mentioned deduction, and the Company is informed of such in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.07, this amount shall not be deducted.

- (b) This deduction from pay will be processed on a monthly basis and will be remitted to the account of the registered charitable organization designated as the Unifor Social Justice Fund, as soon as possible after the end of each month.

3.07 When an employee objects to the above-mentioned deduction, he shall notify in writing the Administrator, Unifor Social Justice Fund. The Union shall then inform in writing the Director, Human Resources or designate of the name, occupation and work location of the employee who objects to the above-mentioned deduction for the purposes of the humanity fund. The Union recognizes its full responsibility in that respect.

General

- 3.08 The Company will cease making such deductions when an employee is assigned to a position not covered by this Agreement with the exception of employees who are assigned to an acting or temporary management position.
- 3.09 When an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect to any month to permit deductions, the Company shall not be obligated to make such deductions from subsequent earnings.
- 3.10 It is understood and agreed that the Union will save the Company harmless from any and all claims which may be made against it by any employee, or on behalf of any employee, or employees, for amounts deducted from wages as provided in this Article.

ARTICLE 4 – UNION REPRESENTATION

- 4.01 The number of bargaining unit representatives shall not exceed one (1) per twenty (20) bargaining unit employees in the provincial distribution centre and one (1) for each location.
- 4.02 (a) The Union agrees to notify the Company in writing of the names of Local Officers, Chief Stewards and Stewards, and identify the Company operating unit each represents, and to inform the Company in the same manner of any changes or substitutions. A Local Officer, Chief Steward or Steward shall not act as such during working hours until the Company has been notified of his appointment.
- (b) Where a Steward is unable to represent the employees in his local, another Steward in that local may be substituted in his place and the Company shall be so informed.

- 4.03 (a) Before changing the status of any Local Officer, Chief Steward or Steward, who is to continue in the Company's employ, so as to render him ineligible to represent his voting unit, such Local Officer, Chief Steward or Steward shall be allowed reasonable time to transfer his duties as a Local Officer, Chief Steward or Steward to his successor.
- (b) Except where the provisions of Article 11 or Article 16 apply, where a Steward or a Local Officer is selected for a relocation which would render him ineligible to represent his voting unit and there is another employee in the same functional group, within the same reporting centre and who possesses the same qualifications, the Steward or Local Officer shall be given the option of accepting or rejecting the relocation providing the remaining employees at the reporting centre from which the relocation is to be made are qualified to perform the work remaining.

- 4.04 The Company agrees that permission for representatives of the Union to enter the Company's premises will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 4.05 The Company shall grant a leave of absence of between three (3) months and one (1) year, without pay, to an employee requesting such leave to assume full-time employment with the Union.
- 4.06 (a) Such leave of absence shall be renewed by the Company at the request of the Union.
- (b) An employee on such a leave of absence shall continue to accumulate net credited service to a maximum of three (3) years.
- 4.07 Leaves of absence without pay of up to two (2) weeks duration shall be granted to employees, at the request of the Union subject to the following conditions:

- (a) the granting of such leaves shall be subject to service requirements;
- (b) the leave of absence shall not be used for the solicitation of members for the purpose of certification;
- (c) a written request for such leave must be submitted to the Company at least two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of the leave, and a copy forwarded to the Director, Human Resources.

4.08 The Company will pay an employee who is on leave of absence pursuant to Section 4.07, on behalf of the Union, at his basic rate of pay for the duration of the leave of absence. Any amount so paid by the Company will be billed to the National Union monthly and the Union shall remit that amount to the Company within thirty (30) days of receipt of the bill.

ARTICLE 5 – TIME ALLOWANCE

- 5.01 (a) An employee having a grievance or complaint, or a potential grievance or complaint, may confer with his Union Steward or with Management or attend a grievance presentation during his scheduled working hours, and
- (b) Union Stewards, Chief Stewards or Local Officers may handle grievances, or attend meetings with the Company, during their scheduled working hours, without deduction of the time so occupied in the computation of the time worked for the Company, and without deduction of wages in respect thereof provided, however, that each employee, Union Steward, Chief Steward or Local Officer must arrange with his immediate supervisor, subject to service requirements, for all time off the job required for the above purposes.

- (c) Any grievance related activities other than those referred to in this Section are to be considered as other Union business and the provisions of Section 5.03 shall apply.

5.02 The Company will encourage managers to discuss required time off for grievance handling with the employee requesting such time to ensure that the necessary, reasonable amount of time is given, subject to service requirements.

If the manager decides the time is not reasonable, the employee may have only the authorized time and may exercise his right to grieve accordingly if not satisfied.

Once time has been approved by a manager, the code will not be changed at a later date.

The Union and the Company underline the common understanding that paid time off for grievance handling includes time for the Steward to meet the grievor, passing the grievance from one step to another which could involve a change of representative, some necessary discussions with the National Union office i.e. reasonable "handling" of a grievance, but does not include: time for Union grievance committee meetings, time for on-site investigations by Union Stewards.

In summary, paid time is granted for a grievor and his Steward to consult, reasonable handling of the grievance and face-to-face meetings with management. All other time is unpaid (OXP).

5.03 An authorized Bargaining Representative of the Union may have time off for purposes of bargaining, without deduction of the time worked for the Company, and without deduction of wages in respect thereof provided that such time is actually devoted to collective bargaining, but only until the expiry date of the Collective Agreement, or the date that conciliation assistance is requested, whichever is later. All time off required after the expiry date of the Collective Agreement or the date that conciliation is requested will be without pay and subsection 5.04(d) shall apply.

- 5.04 (a) A Union Steward, may attend, up to a maximum of five (5) working days for each absence, to other business of the Union without deduction of the time so occupied in the computation of time worked for the Company, provided that it is the business of the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement.
- (b) Chief Stewards or Local Officers may attend, up to a maximum of five (5) working days for each absence, to attend to other business of the Union without deduction of the time so occupied in the computation of time worked for the Company, provided it is the business of the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement.
- (c) All time off required pursuant to subsections 5.04(a) or 5.04(b) will be granted without pay; however,
- (d) the Company will pay the Union Steward, Chief Steward or Local Officer, on behalf of the Union, at his basic rate of pay for all time off to attend to other business of the Union. Any amount so paid by the Company will be billed to the National Union monthly with an accompanying statement of account and the Union shall remit that amount to the Company within thirty (30) days of receipt of the bill.

- 5.05 (a) Time off pursuant to this Article shall be granted only following a formal written request to management, on a form supplied by the Company. Such request shall contain the reason the time off is required, the name of the grievor requesting the meeting and the name of the grievor's Team Leader and/ or Manager (if appropriate), a telephone number where the person requesting the time off can be reached and the estimated duration of the time off the job requested. Such request will not unreasonably be denied, but it is recognized that service requirements make it impractical at times to grant the request; in such cases, the Union Steward, Chief Steward or Local Officer requesting the time off may be replaced by the nearest available Union Steward, Chief Steward or Local Officer from amongst those designated by the Union as a replacement.

- (b) Where a portion of an employee's scheduled vacation falls at the same time as a National Convention or the Bargaining Caucus of the Union to which he is elected to attend, that portion of the employee's vacation may be rescheduled for an available time on the vacation schedule.

- 5.06 (a) It is understood that Union Representatives have work to perform for the Company and any time spent on Union matters during working hours will be devoted only to Union business as provided for in this Agreement. In keeping with that understanding it is also agreed that Union Representatives have a legal obligation to provide proper representation, and time off for Union business will not unreasonably be withheld. The Union agrees that the use of time off the job will not be abused.

- (b) The Director, Human Resources will meet, quarterly if required, with the President and Vice-Presidents of the Union to review alleged abuses regarding the granting or use of time off the job notwithstanding that a matter to be reviewed is, or may be, the subject of a grievance.

5.07 Three (3) employees of the bargaining unit may attend the bargaining caucus of the Union without deduction of the time so occupied in the computation of the time worked for the company, and without deduction of wages in respect thereof, to a maximum of three (3) days; provided however that the company is given the names of the delegates two (2) weeks prior to the meeting.

5.08 The Company shall permit a representative of the Union to provide orientation to new employees regarding the collective agreement and employee rights and responsibilities. This orientation shall be conducted as part of the Company orientation for new employees. The union orientation shall be during working hours and up to thirty (30) minutes at the discretion of the Union representative and shall be without loss of pay.

ARTICLE 6 – EXPENSES

6.01 Each party shall bear the expenses incurred by its own Representatives in attending meetings and proceedings contemplated by this Agreement, and all joint expenses incurred in respect of such meetings and proceedings shall be borne by the parties in equal shares.

ARTICLE 7 – STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

7.01 During the term of this Agreement the Company agrees that there shall be no lockouts and the Union agrees that there shall be no slow-down, strike, or any other stoppage of or interference with work, which would cause any interruption of work.

- 7.02 The word "strike" and "lockout" shall have meaning given these words in the Ontario Labour Relations Act.

ARTICLE 8 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 8.01 The Company has the exclusive right and power to manage its operations in all respects and in accordance with its commitments and responsibilities to the public, to conduct its business efficiently and to direct the working forces and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it has the exclusive right and power to hire, promote, transfer, demote or lay-off employees, and to suspend, dismiss or otherwise discipline employees.
- 8.02 The Company agrees that any exercise of these rights and powers shall not contravene the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 – DEFINITIONS

- 9.01 "Employee" means a person employed in Progistix-Solutions Inc. to do skilled or unskilled manual or technical work in any of the classifications listed in Attachment "A" attached hereto, but does not include a person who is employed in a confidential capacity in matters relating to industrial relations.
- (a) "Regular Employee" means an employee whose employment is reasonably expected to continue and has successfully completed their probation period, although such employment may be terminated by action taken on the part of the company or the employee.
 - (b) A "regular full time employee" means an employee who is normally required to work the basic hours of work.
 - (c) A "part time employee" means an employee who normally works less than the basic hours of work for a regular full time employee. These employees may however, work the basic hours for a regular full time employee to replace absences and meet other business needs.

Probationary Employees

- (d) During the first six hundred forty (640) hours of time worked an employee shall be considered to be on probation. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period the employee name shall be placed on the seniority list as a regular employee with seniority dating from the commencement of the employee's last engagement. The six hundred forty (640) hours referred to above must be accumulated within a period of twelve (12) consecutive months.

- (e) (i) In determining whether an employee on probation is a suitable candidate for continuing employment "suitability" shall be determined in a broad sense considering the nature of the company's operations, the demonstrated ability of the work skills in a manner deemed to be acceptable by the company, the demonstrated ability of the employee to work in harmony and cooperation with other employees and an assessment of any other factors which could be expected to affect work performance and productivity in general.

- (ii) Should a probationary employee be found to be unsuitable, the termination may be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure. The Company will provide the employee and their steward with a copy of "notice of termination" outlining why, in the opinion of the Company, the employee is found to be unsuitable.

9.02 "Time worked" for part time employees is calculated on the basis of actual basic hours worked by the employee (e.g., Forty (40) basic hours worked is equivalent to 1 week of "time worked" for seniority purposes).

ARTICLE 10 – SENIORITY

- 10.01 For employees hired prior to December 1, 1996 the net credited service date as shown on Company records and as posted on the seniority lists establishes an employee's seniority. Employees hired on or after December 1, 1996 will, upon attaining "regular" status have their name placed on the seniority list with seniority dating from the commencement of the employee's last engagement. The Company agrees that existing rules for retaining or amending net credited service as described in Company practices, will not be changed during the life of this agreement in a manner that will diminish the net credited service of any employee.
- 10.02 All employees covered by this agreement shall comprise the seniority unit.

10.03 The exercise of seniority shall be within a seniority unit except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement. If two (2) or more employees have the same seniority, the one occupying his present position the longest shall be deemed to have the most seniority. For all employees hired after January 1, 2006, where two (2) or more employees have the same seniority, the one who had the earliest employment interview, in terms of date and time of their first interview with the Company, shall be deemed to have the most seniority.

10.04 (a) Annually, February 1 and August 1, the Company will provide to the union lists showing the seniority of employees within the seniority unit, and their reporting center. The union will post on the appropriate Company bulletin board. One copy of such list will be sent to the local union office.

(b) The company agrees to supply bi-monthly, to designated local officers of the union, commencing on February 1st, the surname and first name, on company records, of all bargaining unit employees, their employment status, classification, reporting center and the name of the manager to whom they report.

10.05 The Company agrees to advise the Chief Steward concerned where an employee is hired, retired on pension, permanently transferred, temporarily transferred, or assigned to a job location, for five (5) days or more, reclassified, re-assigned, or promoted to a management position. Such advice as well as the employment status of the employee, his classification and reporting centre will be given to the Chief Steward in writing at the time the employee is informed, or immediately thereafter. The Company further agrees to advise, in the same manner, the Chief Steward concerned of an employee's death, resignation or leave of absence for a period exceeding thirty (30) days.

10.06 Seniority rights of an employee shall cease and the employee shall cease to be employed if:

- (a) The employee voluntarily terminates their employment;
- (b) The employee is discharged for cause and is not reinstated through the grievance and/or arbitration procedure;
- (c) A regular employee who has not been recalled to work within a period of twenty-four (24) months following the date of lay-off;
- (d) The employee fails to advise the company within five (5) days after notification to return to work after a lay-off of their intention to do so to the last address recorded by the employee with the company;
- (e) The employee fails to report to work as scheduled after a lay-off;
- (f) The employee is retired under the company pension plan;

- (g) The employee fails to return to work as scheduled following a leave of absence.

ARTICLE 11 – Workforce adjustment

- 11.01 When any condition arises which reduces the work load to the extent that, in the Company's opinion, workforce adjustment is warranted, the Company shall endeavour to reach agreement with the Local President or designate as to whether a plan of part-timing, lay-offs or a combination of the two shall be put into effect.
- 11.02 In the event that an agreement as to a plan cannot be reached under subsection 11.01, the Company may proceed on a plan of lay-off to the extent it deems necessary.
- 11.03 It is expressly understood, however, that if the Company proceeds on a plan of lay-off as prescribed in this article, negotiations toward an agreement relating to a workforce adjustment plan shall be resumed at any time at the request of either party. Similarly, after agreement has been reached as to a plan of workforce adjustment, either party may resume negotiations at any time in an effort to obtain agreement upon modifications of the plan then in effect.

- 11.04 (a) In the event of a lay-off pursuant to sections 11.01 and 11.02, it shall be carried out in the following order:
- i) Probationary employees
 - ii) Contractors of the affected work location, when the present employees have the required skills and the Company has the necessary tools and equipment available to perform, on a competitive basis, the work required to be done
 - iii) Regular part-time employees
 - iv) Regular full-time employees
- (b) Once the lay-off is in effect, no employee shall be hired or transferred into the affected work location until the end of the lay-off period.

Lay-Off Procedures

11.05 The following procedures shall be applied in laying off regular employees in accordance with section 11.04:

- (1) The most junior employee(s) in the affected classification within the work location will be identified as surplus provided those to be retained on the basis of seniority are qualified to perform the work remaining.

- (2) The identified surplus employee will have the option of accepting lay-off or a reassignment. Any reassignment in these circumstances shall be made by the Company only if the employee is qualified and fit to perform the required work, and provided that such assignment can be made without displacing a more senior employee. The reassignment shall be made only in the following order:

- (a) by displacing the most junior employee in the same classification, within the same work location, provided the employee is qualified and fit to perform the required work.
 - (b) by displacing the most junior employee in a lower classification, within the same work location, provided the employee is qualified and fit to perform the required work.
- (3) The Company will attempt to place, in accordance with subsection 11.05 (2), each of the identified surplus employees commencing with the most senior.
- (4) Those employees eventually constituting the final surplus list shall be laid off.
- (5) In the event of a layoff of a regular employee, who cannot be assigned in accordance with the process outlined in (1), (2) or (3) of this section 11.05 may choose to be transferred to a role in his classification in another reporting center adjacent to his own, provided the employee is qualified to perform the work required to be done and provided such assignment can be made without displacing a more senior employee.

- (6) Any regular full-time employee reassigned to a lower classification, in accordance with paragraph (b) of subsection 11.05 (2), shall continue to be paid at his previous salary rate for the duration of the employee's statutory notice period as provided by the Ontario Employment Standards Act, 2000 as may be amended from time to time.

Surplus Information Lists

11.06 The Company agrees to provide the Union with the following information as soon as possible after such information becomes available:

- i) a list of all employees who have been identified as surplus including their classifications and work locations;

- ii) a list of all employees who have been displaced, including their previous classification and their new classification;
- iii) a final list of surplus employees who shall be laid off including their classification and work location;
- iv) a revised seniority list in accordance with section 10.04 of this Agreement.

Benefits Coverage during Layoff

11.07 The Company agrees to treat the first thirty (30) days of a layoff as a leave of absence and to maintain the eligibility of a laid-off employee during that period for:

- a) credit for service; and

- b) eligible employees are able to participate in the Company's benefit plan, based on the employee's selections that were in place immediately before the lay-off.

Reassignment or Transfer

11.08 An employee displaced under section 11.05 shall have the opportunity to be reassigned or transferred, or may at the Company's direction be reassigned or transferred to his former position at his original work location prior to the recall of any laid-off employee at that location.

Recall Procedures

11.09 Employees on layoff shall be listed on a recall list within the work location in seniority order and so maintained. They shall be recalled in reverse order of lay-off provided they are qualified to perform the work available.

11.10 When an employee is recalled to a work location other than his work location at the time of layoff, he may choose, subject to section 11.12, to refuse recall until a job is available at his original work location, provided the position to which he was recalled can be filled by another employee on lay-off with less seniority who is qualified to perform the work. If an employee is recalled to a work location other than his work location at the time of lay-off, the provisions of section 11.08 shall apply.

11.11 It is the responsibility of a laid-off employee who desires to be recalled within the terms above to keep the Company informed of his correct address and phone number(s). The employee must advise the Company within two (2) days of the date of recall as to his acceptance.

11.12 The Company may assume that failure on the part of any laid-off employee to notify the Company within two (2) days concerning his acceptance of an offer of recall, or to report for duty on the date mutually agreed upon by the employee and the Company, shall constitute a rejection and the employee shall be deemed to have resigned.

11.13 The date of mailing of a registered letter to the employee's last address of record shall be the date of offer of recall.

11.14 (a) A regular employee who is laid off shall be eligible for a termination or severance allowance if not recalled within thirteen (13) weeks from the date of layoff.

(b) Severance pay will be calculated on the basis of the following table:

Period Completed	But Less Than	# Weeks Pay

For each subsequent year of service to a maximum total of 52 weeks		1.5

(c) In the case of a full-time employee, a week's pay shall be equivalent to the employee's basic hourly rate for the normal work week.

- (d) In the case of a part-time employee, a week's pay shall be equivalent to the average earnings in the four (4) pay periods preceding layoff; not to exceed the employee's basic hourly rate for the normal work week of a regular full-time employee.

11.15 The employee shall have the right at anytime after the thirteen (13) week period to waive their right to recall and receive their severance or termination allowance.

11.16 It is agreed that anyone claiming the termination allowance under this Article shall have no further claim upon the Company.

11.17 Laid-off employees shall remain on the recall list for a maximum period of twenty-four (24) months after the effective date of their last layoff. Employees will lose their seniority and jobs after this period if they fail or refuse to report to work in accordance with section 11.11.

Company or Union Grievances

14.07 Either party may submit to the other, grievances relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement, and which are general in nature and for which a general remedy is sought, within thirty (30) days of the action or circumstances allegedly giving rise to the grievance, or within thirty (30) days from the date on which the grievor knew, or reasonably ought to have known of such event.

14.08 This procedure shall not be used for processing individual grievances.

14.09 A Company or Union grievance shall be processed in accordance with the intent of the individual grievance procedure and within the applicable time limits, provided always that:

- (a) In the case of a grievance concerning a practice, procedure, event or circumstance having less than company-wide application, the parties may mutually agree to waive the meeting and decision at a particular Step and submit the grievance within three (3) days of such a decision to the next subsequent Step.

The submission and the processing of such a grievance shall be in accordance with the intent of Step 2 of the individual grievance procedure.

Time Limits

14.10 It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that grievances be resolved as quickly as practicable. Time limits are prescribed for this purpose.

14.11 Any grievance not submitted in conformity with the mandatory time limits prescribed in this Article shall be deemed to have been abandoned and cannot be continued or re-opened. If the Company fails to respond, (or, in the case of a grievance by the Company, where the Union fails to respond), or if a grievance is not settled at Step 1 within the prescribed time limits, the grievor may proceed immediately to the next Step. Time limits may be extended only by mutual agreement in writing.

General

14.12 A grievance shall be in writing, on a standard form approved by the Company, and shall include:

- (a) the grievor's name and occupation;
- (b) the date of the event giving rise to the grievance;
- (c) the nature of the grievance, including loss or detriment alleged to have been suffered;
- (d) the remedy sought from the Company; and

- (e) the Article(s) alleged to have been violated.

14.13 A grievance shall not be deemed to be invalid prior to Step 2 by reason only of the fact that the grievance form was not properly completed with respect to the information stipulated in Section 14.12.

14.14 When a grievance or complaint is being handled by a representative of the Union, the Company will not endeavour to settle the grievance or complaint with the employee involved without prior notice to the representative. Where, after such notice, an interview between the employee and management is to take place, the employee shall have the right to be accompanied by a representative. No such grievance or complaint will be deemed to have been settled without the agreement of the employee's Union representative.

14.15 The right of any employee, or group of employees, at any time, to present their personal grievances or complaints to management through the regular supervisory channel is not restricted by this Agreement, except when such grievance or complaint is being handled, or has been handled, by the Union.

Grievance Mediation

14.16 (a) At any stage of the grievance procedure, the Company and the Union may elect, by mutual agreement in writing, to resolve the grievance through grievance mediation. Such agreement must include agreement on the individual to be the mediator, as well as the time frame within which the mediation shall occur and during which the time limits in the grievance procedure shall be suspended. The cost of the mediation shall be shared equally by the parties. The parties hereto will establish a mutually agreed upon list of persons to act as mediators for the application of this section. (Grievance Mediation). Should none of the persons on the list be available within the time frame required by the Company and the Union, the parties may agree upon another individual.

- (b) If the grievance is not resolved through the grievance or grievance mediation process, the grievance may be referred to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Article 15.

Complaint Procedure

- 14.17 (a) A complaint may be submitted orally, except that where submitted to the Director level of management or above, it shall be in writing.
- (b) Oral warnings or reprimands, may not be the object of a complaint or grievance.

- 14.18 A complaint shall follow the steps and observe the time limits provided in this Article for the processing of individual grievances, or Company and Union grievances, as appropriate.
- 14.19 Subject to Section 14.20, it is agreed that a written statement of settlement, or failing settlement, a written statement of Company position at Step 2 shall constitute the final resolution of the complaint.
- 14.20 Where prior to a Step 2 meeting, the Union alleges that the subject matter of a complaint is a difference relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement, the Union shall identify the provision of the agreement allegedly violated and that matter may then be pursued as a grievance.

ARTICLE 15 – ARBITRATION

15.01 When a grievance relating to the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement is still unresolved after the grievance procedure has been exhausted, there shall be no stoppage of work, but the Union or the Company may institute arbitration proceedings in the manner, and subject to the terms, set forth below.

15.02 It is agreed that the right to arbitration does not extend to any matters other than those expressly mentioned in Section 15.01 of this Article, either party may, within thirty (30) calendar days of the expiry of the disposition of the matter at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, but not later, institute arbitration proceedings by written notice to the other party. The notice shall state the matter at issue and shall state in what respect the Agreement has been violated or misinterpreted by reference to the Article or Articles relied upon, or state in what respect the application or administration of the Agreement is being contested. The notice shall also stipulate the nature of the relief or the remedy sought.

- 15.03 (a) The party instituting arbitration proceedings shall, in the notice referred to in Section 15.02, suggest the names of three (3) neutral persons any one of whom it is prepared to accept as an Arbitrator.
- (b) The recipient of the notice referred to in Section 15.02 shall, within ten (10) days, notify the other party of:
- (i) its acceptance of one of the persons proposed by that party to act as an Arbitrator, or
 - (ii) suggest the names of other neutral persons it proposes to act as an Arbitrator.

- (c) Where, within thirty (30) days of the sending of the notice referred to in Section 15.02, or such period as the parties may agree, the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator, either party may apply to the Ministry of Labour to appoint as arbitrator a person knowledgeable and experienced in the interpretation of written collective agreements. The party shall send a copy of the application to the other party and such party shall, within ten (10) days, advise the other party of its receipt of the application.

15.04 Where an Arbitrator has been chosen pursuant to Section 15.03;

- (a) the Arbitrator shall suggest dates on which to commence the hearing of the matter in dispute. Such dates shall be, insofar as possible, within sixty (60) days of the appointment of the arbitrator, or such longer period as the parties may agree;

- (b) the Arbitrator shall, on the day scheduled pursuant to subsection 15.04(a), meet to hear the matter at issue unless the parties and the Arbitrator agree on another date on which to commence the hearing; and
- (c) where the hearing of the matter cannot be completed in one day, it will be scheduled, insofar as possible, to continue within thirty (30) days of the date of the first hearing, or such longer period as the parties may agree.

Board of Arbitration

15.05 Either party may, in the correspondence contemplated under Sections 15.02 or 15.03, notify the other party of its suggestion to proceed before a board of arbitration. Provided both parties agree, an arbitrator selected in accordance with Sections 15.03 or 15.06 shall be appointed as chair of the arbitration board. Each party shall be responsible for naming its own nominee to the arbitration board, ensuring that the nominee is available on the date scheduled to commence the hearing of the matter in dispute, and will advise the other party and the chair ten (10) days prior to the date scheduled for the hearing of the name of its nominee. Where the parties have agreed to a board of arbitration, references in this article to "arbitrator" will be read to mean "arbitration board", where appropriate.

Expedited Arbitration Process

15.06 Notwithstanding the above either party may, following a written request for arbitration, refer a grievance arising from termination of employment to expedited arbitration. In such an instance the parties will endeavour to agree upon an arbitrator who is available to commence hearing the case within sixty (60) calendar days from the date of the written request for arbitration. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator either party may request the Ministry of Labour to appoint an arbitrator.

General

15.07 Where the matter at issue is one relating to the alleged violation of Section 13.01, the Arbitrator, subject to the terms of this Agreement, has the power to:

- (a) uphold the penalty,
- (b) reverse the penalty, or
- (c) modify the penalty in a just and reasonable manner based on the evidence before him.

15.08 The decision of the Arbitrator shall be made within sixty (60) days of the first hearing unless the parties otherwise agree or unless owing to circumstances beyond the control of the Arbitrator, it is not practicable to make a decision within the sixty (60) days.

15.09 It is the intention of the parties to adhere to the time limits expressed in this article but the failure of an Arbitrator to do so does not affect the jurisdiction of the Arbitrator to continue with and complete the arbitration proceedings.

15.10 If at Step 2 of the grievance procedure the parties are unable to agree as to whether the matter at issue is one relating to an alleged violation of Section 13.01, the procedure described in Section 15.06 shall not apply.

15.11 The Arbitrator shall not have any power to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to substitute any new provisions for any existing provisions thereof, and in reaching a decision it shall be bound by the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

15.12 Each party shall pay one-half the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator (or Chair, where applicable) and of any clerk or stenographer whom the Arbitrator (or Chair, where applicable) may require. Except as aforesaid, each party shall bear all expenses incurred by it whether of witnesses, the attendance of witnesses and representatives, exhibits, fees and expenses of its own nominee (where applicable), or otherwise.

15.13 The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties, but such decision shall not have retroactive effect prior to the date of the occurrence on which the grievance is based. Where applicable, the decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall govern.

ARTICLE 16 – TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 16.01 Technological change in this article means the introduction by the Company of equipment of a different kind or nature than that previously used by the Company which directly results in the displacement of a significant number of employees.
- 16.02 The Company agrees to consult with the Union in order to assist employees whose terms and conditions of employment are affected by any technological change to adjust to the effects thereof.
- 16.03 Whenever the Company proposes to effect a technological change that is likely to result in the termination of employment of fifty (50) or more employees within the bargaining unit, it shall give notice of the technological change to the Union at least one hundred and twenty (120) days prior to the date of any such termination. The notice shall be in writing and shall state:

- (a) the nature of the technological change;
- (b) the date upon which the Company proposes to effect the technological change;
- (c) the approximate number and type of employees likely to be affected by the technological change;
- (d) the locations where the technological change will have effect.

The Company further agrees to meet with the Union at the time such notice is given in an endeavour to reach agreement on an alternative to termination.

16.04 Where within twelve (12) months of the date on which the Company effected, in a location, a technological change for which notice is required under Section 16.03, the Company requires a further reduction of the work force in that location as a result of the ongoing effects of that technological change, the provisions of Sections 16.02 and 16.05 to 16.10 inclusive shall apply to the employees affected.

16.05 In the event the Company and the Union are unable to reach agreement within thirty (30) days of the Union being notified, in accordance with Section 16.03, an affected employee may:

- (a) elect to accept termination of service in accordance with Section 16.08; or
- (b) elect to invoke the layoff provisions of Article 11.

16.06 Whenever the Company proposes to effect a technological change the impact of which is less extensive than that described in Section 16.03, the Company shall consult with the Union to examine alternatives to lay off or termination.

16.07 All employees with six (6) or more months of net credited service shall not be subject to lay-off or termination due to technological change, but may elect termination in accordance with the provisions of Section 16.08, as an alternative to being re-assigned or transferred. For employees with less than six (6) months of net credited service, any lay-off or recall resulting from technological change shall be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of Article 11, and termination allowance shall be paid, where applicable, in accordance with the provisions of Section 16.08.

16.08 (a) Termination allowances in amounts computed in accordance with subsection 16.08(c) shall be paid to employees whose service is terminated by the Company and the termination is directly attributable to a technological change, unless the employee is retiring on pension where the Company has been advised, in advance of the notification of technological change given pursuant to Section 16.03, of his intention to retire on pension.

- (b) Termination allowances will not be paid to employees who are dismissed for misconduct, or resign.
- (c) The amount of termination allowance paid in accordance with this Article will be computed as follows:

15 years	16 years	36
For each subsequent 6 month period:

16.09 If an employee with six (6) months or more net credited service is transferred or re-assigned as a result of technological change to a position or classification different from the one immediately prior to the transfer and the basic rate of pay for the new position or classification is lower, the employee so transferred will receive a "Transfer Indemnity" paid as a lump sum calculated on the basis of the differential between the rates of pay for a period of twelve (12) months.

16.10 If an employee is transferred to another facility within the bargaining unit as the result of technological change and in accordance with the definition of a transfer contained in Article 22, or subsection 23.01, the provisions of section 22.09 shall apply.

ARTICLE 17 – WAGE ADMINISTRATION

17.01 "Basic rate of pay" means the basic hourly rate as specified in Wage Schedule 1.

Higher Rates of Pay to Individual Employees

17.02 (a) A new or transferred employee who has had previous experience, related training or educational qualifications beyond the standard requirements, may be placed at a wage rate commensurate with such experience, training or education.

- (b) An employee on demotion treatment may be placed on a wage rate commensurate with their service and experience.

Demotional Treatment

17.03 The Company agrees that it will not change, during the term of this Agreement, the procedures which were in effect on the date of signing this Agreement for determining wage treatment for employees covered by this Agreement who are subject to demotion treatment.

Establishment of a New Classification

17.04 The Company will inform the Union of the establishment of a new classification and the subsequent revisions, if any to Attachment

“A” and Wage Schedule 1. If the Union does not consider the rate proper, the matter may be subject to the grievance procedure commencing at Step 2.

Wage Progression

- 17.05 (a) Increases shall be granted on the basis of merit as determined by the Company. The time interval specified for each step of a wage schedule is a period during which an employee is under survey as to his capacity and qualifications.
- (b) Where, in the opinion of the Company, an employee has not demonstrated sufficient qualifications or capacity to warrant an increase on the basis of merit, he shall be so notified in writing no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the due date for the increase. A copy of the notice is to be sent to the employee's Steward.

- (c) Where an employee receives a notice pursuant to subsection 17.05 (b) he may, within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice, review, with his immediate supervisor, the reasons for the withholding of the increase. Should the employee, following the review, believe the action is unwarranted, he may take the matter up as a grievance.

17.06 (a) The time interval for each step in the wage schedule shall be one thousand forty (1040) hours of the time worked for all regular employees.

- (b) The time interval for each step in the wage schedule shall be six hundred and eighty (680) hours of the time worked for all probationary employees.

17.07 The effective day for a wage increase shall be the first day of the first full bi-weekly pay period following the granting of the increase.

Pay Treatment - Employee Absent

- 17.08 (a) Increases or decreases in the basic rate of pay, which an employee would have received had he been on the job, shall not be made effective while he is absent due to leave of absence, accident, sickness or quarantine.
- (b) Where, for reasons of accident, sickness or quarantine, an employee is absent for thirty (30) days or less and his progressional wage increase is delayed until his return to work in accordance with subsection 17.08(a), the effective date of any subsequent progressional wage increase shall not be affected.
- (c) Where, for reasons of accident, sickness or quarantine, an employee is absent for more than thirty (30) days and his progressional wage increase is delayed until his return to work in accordance with subsection 17.08(a), the effective date of any subsequent progressional wage increase shall be calculated from the day the employee returns to work.

- (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 17.08(c), where an employee is absent for more than thirty (30) days for reason of a leave granted under Section 31.01, 31.02 or 31.03, the provisions of subsection 17.08(b) shall apply.

Pay Days

17.09 An employee shall be paid every alternate Thursday at his basic rate of pay, for all applicable paid hours in the two-week period ending the Saturday previous to the pay day. This shall include any overtime worked and other additional payments within that same pay period.

17.10 The rates of pay for any new classifications created during the life of this Agreement shall be negotiated with the Union before being put into effect.

Promotional Treatment

17.11 When an employee is promoted to a higher rated job on the same wage schedule:

- (a) if the employee is not at the top rate for his classification prior to promotion he shall continue to progress through the schedule in the normal manner until his new top rate is reached;

- (b) if he has been less than six (6) months on the top rate for his classification prior to promotion he shall move to the next higher step on the schedule at the expiry of six (6) months from the date he reached the maximum rate for his classification prior to promotion.

- (c) if he has been six (6) months or more at the top rate for his classification prior to promotion he shall move to the next higher step on the schedule at the time of promotion.

17.12 When an employee is promoted to a higher rated job in a different wage schedule he shall move immediately to the step on the new schedule which has the same rate as his present wage or, if there is no identical rate on the schedule, to the closest higher rate to his present wage rate. If the employee was not at the maximum rate prior to promotion he shall carry forward any wage credit accumulated towards his next progressional increase. If the employee was at the maximum rate for his classification prior to promotion and his new wage rate is not the maximum for his new classification, he shall be eligible for a progressional increase on the new schedule six (6) months after promotion.

Leadership Premium

17.13 Effective upon implementation of the above wage schedule, all employees who are assigned to a daily leadership role with respect to bargaining unit employees as determined by the Company will be eligible to receive a Leadership Premium of $2.00 for each hour worked.

In the event that an employee exercises his seniority right to bump into a different shift and the most junior employee on the shift is a Lead Hand, and there are no qualified volunteers in the relevant work area prepared to assume the leadership role of the junior employee to be displaced, then the senior employee seeking to bump must accept the leadership role as a condition of the bump provided they are able to perform the required work within the ten (10) working day familiarization period in accordance with article 24.04.

Workplace Trainer Premium

17.14 An employee who has been provided with specialized forklift truck trainer training will be eligible to receive a premium of $2.50 for each hour they are assigned to train and certify others in the safe and efficient operation of forklift trucks.

Eligible employees receiving the workplace trainer premium, as well as the Leadership Premium, may only claim one of the two premiums while performing the associated concurrent functions.

22.07 In the selection of an employee for permanent transfer, the Company will first give consideration to an employee who has the necessary qualifications and who will transfer voluntarily. The remaining employees within the work location from which the transfer is to be made must have the necessary qualifications to perform the work at that location.

22.08 In the event there is to be a permanent involuntary transfer, the employee of least seniority in the work location, from which the transfer is to be made, and who has the necessary qualifications, shall be selected. The remaining employees within the work locations from which the transfer is to be made must have the necessary qualifications to perform the work at that location.

22.09 When an employee is permanently transferred from one work location to another at the request of the Company, and as a result of such transfer an employee's new work location is further from his home than was his former work location prior to the transfer and a change of residence is required, the employee shall be reimbursed for moving expenses as approved by the Company and in accordance with Company practices. The Company agrees with respect to employee expense incidental to a transfer, that it will not diminish, during the term of the Agreement, the level of reimbursement that applied on the date of signing of the Agreement.

Temporary Transfer

22.10 In the selection of an employee for temporary transfer, the Company will first give consideration to the most senior employee who has the necessary qualifications, and who will transfer voluntarily. The remaining employees from within the work location from which the transfer is to be made, must have the necessary qualifications, to perform the work at that location.

22.11 In the event that there is no volunteer, as provided in Section 22.10, the employee of least seniority from the work location from which the transfer is to be made, and who has the necessary qualifications, shall be selected. The remaining employees within the work location from which the transfer is to be made must have the necessary qualifications to perform the work at that location.

22.12 It is the Company's intention that on completion of a temporary transfer the employee shall be returned to his former position and work location. It is understood that such re-transfer will not be possible where an emergency situation exists, or where due to unplanned or unforeseen events, for example, there is insufficient work and, his former position at his former work location is unavailable. However, in order to enable a more senior employee who is on temporary transfer to return to his former work location, the Company agrees to displace an employee with less seniority in the same classification at that work location.

Reassignments

22.13 (a) In the selection of an employee for:

- a permanent lateral reassignment, or
- a temporary lateral reassignment for more than thirty (30) days;

to another reporting centre outside his reporting locality, the Company shall first give consideration to the most senior volunteer. In the event that there is no volunteer, the employee of least seniority shall be selected. The reassigned employee shall be from the functional group in the seniority unit within the reporting centre from which the reassignment is to be made, shall possess the necessary qualifications and the remaining employees shall have the qualifications to complete the work remaining.

(b) Should a Company initiated lateral reassignment involve a change in function the Company will support the employee's transition with a familiarization period of up to twenty (20) working days.

Exceptions

22.14 Certain circumstances may require job filling procedures to be superseded and by-passed. Accordingly the Company may fill a position within the bargaining unit for the following reasons, as appropriate:

(a) Health or Disability

(i) for reasons of health or disability affecting a person employed by the Company in any bargaining unit, or

(ii) where a Company employee returns from another bargaining unit following a placement for reasons of health or disability;

- (b) Surplus - where the provisions of Article 11 are applied.
- (c) Demotion within Unit - where an employee is involuntarily demoted within the bargaining unit.
- (d) Employment Equity - where a person is placed into the bargaining unit, for the purpose of Employment Equity.
- (e) Redeployment, New Business and New Technology - where a person is moved within, or placed into, the bargaining unit for reason of
 - (i) Redeployment due to lack of work or priority of work, or
 - (ii) the start-up of a new business opportunity or the initial introduction of new technology

The Company agrees to initiate local meetings between management and Union Representatives to explore the options available and possible alternatives to deal with these situations. The agreement of the National Union and Director, Human Resources is required to approve the application of this exception. The agreement of the National Union in these situations will not unreasonably be withheld;

- (f) Return from leave of absence - where an employee returns to the bargaining unit following a leave of absence approved by the company

22.15 The Company shall inform the union in writing of any position within the bargaining unit filled for any of the reasons described in Section 22.14.

ARTICLE 23 – TRAVEL ALLOWANCE, LIVING AND TRANSPORTATION EXPENSES PAID

Travel Allowance To and From the Job

23.01 When an employee, at the request of the Company, is assigned to a special project, attend a training course or temporarily transferred to a work location that is further away from their home than their normal work location the employee shall be eligible to receive travel expenses in accordance with the Progistix travel and expense policy. The provisions of the policy do not have application if the change in location is at the employee's request or is as a result of the employee exercising their seniority rights.

ARTICLE 24 – JOB POSTING PROCEDURES

24.01 “Vacancy” - A vacancy is deemed to exist when an addition or a replacement of a position, void of an incumbent, is required in a classification within a work group on a shift for a period greater than six (6) consecutive months.

24.02 When a vacancy occurs in a classification for which there are relief employees, the most senior relief employee who has successfully demonstrated the ability to perform the full work requirements for that classification and who is willing to perform the work will be promoted to fill the vacancy.

Prior to the filling of a vacancy in a classification for which there are relief employees the incumbents in the classification for which there are relief employees are afforded the opportunity to take a lateral reassignment in accordance with the provisions of Section 24.04.

24.03 When a vacancy or a temporary upgrade occurs in a classification for which no relief employees are required and the vacancy or temporary upgrade is expected by the Company to last more than six (6) months, it will be filled in the following manner:

- (a) The position will be posted for five (5) working days in order to give all employees an opportunity to apply for the position.
 - i) On a day a vacancy is “posted” it will be posted prior to noon (12:00 pm). Postings will be removed after noon (12:00 pm) of the same day in the following week.

- (b) The most senior applicant who possesses the qualifications to perform the work required to be done will be selected to fill the vacancy. It is understood that job qualifications will bear a reasonable relationship to the basic requirements of the job opening.

Experience gained, other than experience gained as a “relief employee” through a temporary upgrade of six (6) months or less will not be used in any way that would give an advantage to a junior employee in any future job opportunity.

24.04 Employees may also apply for a job posting that will result in a lateral reassignment. The following conditions apply for lateral reassignments:

- (a) The Company will only be required to grant one (1) lateral reassignment as a result of any one (1) vacancy.
- (b) The senior qualified employee will be selected.
- (c) To be qualified for a lateral reassignment the employee must be able to perform the required work within such period of time as may be reasonably required but in any event not more than ten (10) working days familiarization period.

24.05 It is understood that an employee may only be considered for a posted position provided that the employee is meeting the basic job requirements of his job, is not on interim review and, his global performance rating is satisfactory.

24.06 It is understood that service requirements may prevent a successful applicant from immediately assuming the position for which he had applied; nevertheless the date an applicant can be released from his current job will not prevent him from being selected for the posted position. Positions may be filled temporarily pending the final availability of the employee who is to fill the job.

24.07 An employee:

in the twenty four (24) months subsequent to his engagement or re-engagement; or in the twenty four (24) months subsequent to his appointment to a position through a job posting which results in a promotion or; in the twelve (12) months subsequent to his appointment to a position through a job posting which results in a lateral reassignment or a temporary upgrade.

shall not be eligible to participate in the posting procedures provided in Sections 24.03, 24.04 and 24.08 except:

- (a) that an employee who is appointed to a position as a result of a job posting application may, during this freeze period, apply for a job upgrade at that location;

- (b) where an employee's report centre is changed by the Company;
- (c) where an employee who has been granted a lateral reassignment is again laterally reassigned by the Company.

When a vacancy occurs in a classification for a relief position it shall be filled in the following manner:

- (a) The position will be posted for five (5) working days to give all employees an opportunity to apply for the relief position. When posting for a vacancy in a classification for a relief position the current designated “relief employees” are afforded the opportunity to take a lateral reassignment in accordance with the provisions of Section 24.04.
- (b) The most senior applicant who possesses the qualifications and who is willing and able to perform, under the guidance and direction of the person for whom they will be the “relief”, the work that is required to be done and on the same shift will be selected and designated as a “relief employee” for the classification concerned. It is understood that qualifications will bear a reasonable relationship to the basic requirements of the position.

- 24.09 (a) A “relief employee” means an employee who is selected to learn and perform the duties, as required, of a classification for which they are the relief employee and for which they will receive the rate of pay, as determined through the application of Section 17.13, while so employed.
- (b) Notwithstanding Section 24.09 (a) a relief employee may be required to replace an employee for rest periods and other short periods, of time, that is, less than a normal shift. Such temporary relief is considered part of the relief employee's responsibility for familiarization purposes and therefore no higher rate will apply in such cases.

- (c) No employee shall hold more than one relief position at any time.

24.10 Certain circumstances may require job posting procedures to be superceded and bypassed. Accordingly, the Company may fill a position within the bargaining unit for the following reasons, as appropriate:

- a) Health or Disability - For reasons of Health or Disability affected persons employed by the Company or where a Company employee returns to the bargaining unit following a placement for reasons of Health or Disability;

- b) Surplus - where the provisions of Article 11 are applied
- c) Demotion within Unit - where an employee is involuntarily demoted within the Bargaining Unit
- d) Employment Equity - where a person is placed into the Bargaining Unit, for the purpose of Employment Equity
- e) Redeployment, new business and new technology - where a person is moved within, or placed into, the Bargaining Unit for reason of
 - (i) Redeployment due to lack of work or priority of work, or
 - (ii) The start up of a new business opportunity or the initial introduction of new technology

The Company agrees to initiate local meetings between Management and Union representatives to explore the options available and possible alternatives to deal with these situations. The agreement of the National Union and Director, Human Resources is required to approve the application of this exception. The agreement of the National Union in these situations will not unreasonably be withheld.

(a) Return from Leave of Absence

- (i) Where an employee returns to the bargaining unit following a leave of absence approved by the Company;
- (ii) movement within the bargaining unit to accommodate a disability

24.11 The Company shall inform the Union in writing of any position within the bargaining unit filled for any of the reasons described in Section 24.10.

24.12 The Company will provide information to designated local officers of the Union, and to all employees who responded to the job posting, concerning the posted position and the results of the posting.

Wage Administration

24.13 The parties hereto agree that when an employee moves from a higher wage classification to a lower wage classification and is subsequently promoted through the application of Article 24, Job Posting Procedures, or is temporarily upgraded to a position in the higher classification in which they had previously worked the employee will be placed on the wage schedule of the higher wage classification at the same wage rate they had previously earned while employed in the higher classification. Should the previously earned wage rate no longer exist on the wage schedule the employee will be placed on the wage schedule at the closest higher rate to the wage rate the employee previously earned.

Relocation of Service

24.14 The parties hereto agree that should a current service be transferred to a new work location during the term of the collective agreement the positions will be filled through the application of Article 24.

modified, except with the consent of the Union, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

25.02 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 25.01(b), should legislation or regulation affect any of the plans, the Company reserves the right to adjust the benefit levels of the plans as required and in accordance with legislation or regulation. Such adjustments shall not reduce the aggregate level of benefits available to the employees covered by this collective agreement.

26.01 Employees shall provide themselves with suitable clothing for the job to which they are assigned.

26.02 The Company shall supply or make available such special clothing as it deems necessary to be worn on the job for reasons of appearance, safety or health, or as a protection against undue wear or damage. The Company may, at its discretion, replace employees' clothing damaged under unusual job conditions.

Company will attempt to minimize the financial impact of such absences by the granting of paid time owing to the employee. It is understood that time off for family emergencies is to attend to immediate responsibilities and the employee will make every reasonable effort to return to work as soon as possible.

Office Consolidations, Centralizations And Closures

27.05 Immediately upon learning of a potential office consolidation, centralization or closure, the Director, Human Resources, undertakes to meet with the appropriate national officer of the union, or their delegate, in order to initiate local meetings between management and Union representatives to consult on the impact of the consolidation, centralization or closure on employees and to explore the options available and possible alternatives to deal with the situation.

To the extent possible, a standardized approach should be developed by the parties as a response to such situations.

ARTICLE 28 – BULLETIN BOARDS

28.04 The Union agrees that nothing contrary to the interests of the Company or in contravention of the spirit and intent of this Agreement shall be posted. Subject: Contracting Out

Dear Mr. O'Dell,

This is to confirm our understanding reached during bargaining for the renewal of the Craft and Services Collective Agreement regarding the issue of contracting out.

What follows has been developed jointly in a spirit of cooperation and trust based on the belief that there is a value and benefit to the employee, the Company and the customer if:

- Employment security is enhanced by a productive, healthy and cost-effective organization.
- While striving to provide employment security to regular employees, there is an improved understanding as to why contractors are used.

- There is a greater involvement by employees in the decision-making process.
- The Union and the Company work together and act responsibly balancing the interests of the customer, the Company and the employee regarding the issue of the utilization of contractors.

Based on the principles outlined above, the parties have agreed to establish forums for the exchange of information and to encourage consultation between management and representatives of the Union on issues related to the contracting out of work, which may be performed by the bargaining unit employees.

At least once per year, or more frequently where agreed to by both parties, an Officer of the Union (or their delegate) shall meet with the Vice President, Operations (who has bargaining unit employees in his organization) to discuss the broad principles associated with the contracting out issue as it pertains to the manager's organization.

Each quarter, or more frequently where agreed to by both parties, the Director, Operations shall meet with the Local Union President to discuss and review contracting out activity and concerns within the manager's organization. The Director, Operations and the Local Union President may jointly agree to delegate, in part or in full, the responsibility for these quarterly meetings where, in their opinion, such delegation would result in more meaningful dialogue between the parties.

It is agreed that the meetings contemplated under this letter may be face-to-face, by conference call, etc., as deemed appropriate by the individuals involved.

Although not intended to limit the scope of discussions between the Local Union President and the Director, Operations, (or their designates), areas which shall be reviewed include:

- Work contracted out by the manager's organization since the last meeting.
- Feedback on work which was contracted out (to highlight possible improvements or suggest alternatives).
- Work which is expected to be contracted out (with as much advance notice as practicable).

- Alternatives to contracting out of work (e.g., utilizing part-time employees, more efficient utilization of available employees across districts/departments, etc.).

In discussions related to the contracting out of bargaining unit work, relevant considerations may include, but are not limited to, the type of work being contracted out, the availability of necessary skills and equipment, price and quality competitiveness, balancing out the amount of work required to be performed, etc.

The parties' wish is that these forums encourage a growing and meaningful dialogue at the operating level of the Company on the issue of contracting out.

Yours truly,

Gary Phillion
Director, Human Resources
