If the parties are attempting to resolve the grievance, or an issue that may become a grievance, through discussion, or other forms of communication, the time limits expressed in this Article, will not be deemed to be in effect. However, either party may at any time unilaterally declare that the time limits are in effect. From the date of that unilateral declaration the time limits will come into effect at the last step filed by either party. The parties may agree to extend the time limits.

22.04 a) The Employer or the Union will not be required to consider or process any grievance which arose out of any action or condition more than five (5) work days after the subject of such grievance occurred. If the action or condition is of a continuing or recurring nature, this limitation period will not begin to run until the action or condition has ceased. This is a mandatory time limit. The limitation period will not apply to true Policy Grievances.

b) If the Employer does decide to process a grievance which has been presented late, the Employer will not be stopped or precluded at any stage from taking the position that the grievance is late and not arbitrable.

22.05 No employee will have a grievance until he has discussed his complaint with their immediate Supervisor or Senior Management where reasonably possible. If the employee's Supervisor does not promptly settle the matter to the employee's satisfaction the employee's proper grievance may be processed as follows:

The designated Employer representative will notify the Union representative of their decision in writing not later than five (5) work days following the day upon which the grievance was submitted.

Step 2

If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, a Union representative will within five (5) work days of the decision under Step 1, or within seven (7) work days of the day this decision should have been made, submit a written grievance to the designated Employer Representative. A meeting will be held between the Steward or Union representative together with the grievor involved and the designated Employer representative and other representatives of the Employer. This meeting will be held within five (5) work days of the presentation of the written grievance to the designated Employer representative. The Employer will notify the Steward or Union Representative of his decision in writing within five (5) work days of such meeting.

Step 3

In the event that the grievance is not settled at Step 2 the party having the grievance may serve the other party with written notice of desire to arbitrate within five (5) work days of the delivery of the decision in Step 2 to the Steward or Union Representative but not thereafter.

22.06 Union Policy Grievance or Employer Grievance

- a) A Union Policy Grievance or an Employer grievance must be submitted to the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, in writing, within ten (10) work days of the time circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known or should have been known by the grievor. A meeting between the Employer and the Union will be held within five (5) work days of the presentation of the written grievance and will take place within the framework of Step 3 of Article 22.05 hereof. The Employer or the Union, as the case may be, will give its written decision within seven (7) work days after such meeting has been held.

ARTICLE 23 - ARBITRATION

- 23.01 If a notice of desire to arbitrate is served, the two parties will each nominate an arbitrator within seven (7) days of service and notify the other party of the name and address of its nominee. The two arbitrators so appointed will attempt to select, by agreement, a Chairman. If they are unable to agree upon a Chairman within seven days of their appointment, either party may request the Provincial Minister of Employment, Immigration and Industry (Mediation Services) to appoint an impartial Chairman.

- 23.02 No person may be appointed as Chairman who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 23.03 The decision of a majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman of the Arbitration Board governs.
- 23.04 Notices of desire to arbitrate and of nominations of an arbitrator shall be served personally, by fax, by e-mail or by registered mail. If served by registered mail, the date of mailing will be deemed to be the date of service.
- 23.05 If a party refuses or neglects to answer a grievance at any stage of the Grievance Procedure, the other party may commence arbitration proceedings and if the party in default refuses or neglects to appoint an arbitrator in accordance with Article 23.01, the party not in default may, upon notice to the party in default, appoint a Single Arbitrator to hear the grievance and his decision will be final and binding upon both parties.
- 23.06 It is agreed that the Arbitration Board will have the jurisdiction, power and authority to give relief for default in complying with the time limits set out in Article 22 and 23 where it appears that the default was owing to a reliance upon the words or conduct of the other party.
- 23.07 An employee found to be wrongfully discharged or suspended will be reinstated with back pay calculated at an hourly rate or average earnings, as applicable, times normal hours, less any monies earned, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the Arbitration Board.

- 23.08 Where the Arbitration Board is of the opinion that there is proper cause for disciplining an employee, but considers the penalty imposed too severe in view of the employee's employment record and the circumstance surrounding the discharge or suspension, the Arbitration Board may substitute a penalty which, in its opinion, is just and equitable. This clause will not apply to the discharge of a probationary employee.
- 23.09 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by it, and the parties will jointly bear the expense of the Chairman of the Arbitration Board.
- 23.10 The Board of Arbitration will not be authorized to make any decisions inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement, nor to adjudicate any matter not specifically assigned to it by the notice to arbitrate specified in Step 3 of Article 22.05 hereof

ARTICLE 24 – WARNING, SUSPENSION AND DISCHARGE

24.01 Progressive Discipline

Progressive discipline is a process for dealing with job-related behavior that does not meet expected and communicated performance standards. The primary purpose for progressive discipline is to assist the employee to understand that a performance issue or opportunity for improvement exists. The process of progressive discipline is not intended as a punishment for an employee, but to assist the employee to overcome performance problems and satisfy job expectations. Progressive discipline is most successful when it assists an individual to become an effectively performing member of the organization.

The employer will ensure that a proper progressive discipline process is in place.

- 24.02 Levels of discipline may include verbal warnings, written warnings, suspension and discharge. Verbal warnings should be recorded in writing.
- 24.03 A job Steward will be present for all disciplinary meetings. When a Steward is not available, the employee will be given the option to choose another employee to be present. If the employee does not choose another employee, the Employer may choose another employee to be present.
- 24.04 When the action of an employee calls for a warning by the Employer, such a warning will be provided in writing by the foreman/supervisor. The foreman/supervisor will provide access to disciplinary documents to the Steward and the Union.
- 24.05 An employee may be suspended or discharged for proper cause by the Employer. Proper cause may include:
- i) The refusal by an employee to abide by Safety Regulations;

- 24.06 In the case of a suspension or discharge, the Union may meet with the Employer within ten (10) work days to attempt to resolve the matter. If the matter is not resolved at this meeting, it may be referred directly to arbitration, by-passing the grievance procedure.
- 24.07 An employee will be deemed to have voluntarily quit if the employee fails to show up for work or fails to notify the Employer for three (3) consecutive work days without a justifiable reason as determined by both the Employer and the Union

ARTICLE 25 - DUES AND TRUST FUND PAYMENTS

- 25.01 The parties acknowledge that delinquent payments to the Union as per Article 7 or for any of the Employer contributions to the Funds established in Articles 16, 17 and 18 will pose a serious threat to the plan participants. Therefore the Trustees of the Funds are empowered to take any action in law necessary to collect all Funds owing, and to impose remedies and damages stipulated by the Trust Agreements. All costs of such collection will be borne by the Employer.
- 25.02 Contributions will be made to the Union Provincial Remittance Processing Centre pursuant to Articles 7, 16, 17 and 18, each month, by the fifteenth (15th) of the month following the month of contributions, together with an itemized list of the employees for whom the contributions are made and the amount remitted for each.
- 25.03 In the event that the Employer fails to make the proper remittance, the Union will notify the Employer of this failure. The Employer will then have two (2) working days to correct this error.

- 25.04 Further to Article 25.03, if the Employer continues to be delinquent in its remittance to the Union as outlined in Articles 7, 16, 17 and 18, the Union or the Trust Funds may impose a penalty of one percent (1%) per month on the amount owing.
- 25.05 If the Employer satisfies all its obligations under Articles 25.02, 25.03 and 25.04, relating to Articles 7, 16, 17 and 18, the Union agrees the Employer will be saved harmless for any claims, relating to the remittances of Union dues, Administration dues, the Health and Welfare plan, the Retirement plans and Education and Training funds excluding any costs the Employer incurs defending such claims.
- 25.06 The Employer will, and will be deemed to, keep all Union dues and Administration dues deducted and all contributions to the Funds as set out in Articles 16, 17 and 18, separate and apart from its own monies. The Employer will, and will be deemed to, hold the sum in trust on behalf of the employees until the Employer has paid such monies to the applicable Trust Fund or Union Provincial Remittance Processing Centre. In the event of the bankruptcy (or any similar event) of the Employer, an amount equal to the amount that is owed to the applicable Trust Fund or Union Provincial Remittance Processing Centre for Union dues Administration dues and Permit dues and contributions that the employees are entitled to, will be deemed to be separate from and form no part of the estate that is in bankruptcy (or any similar event), whether or not that amount has in fact been kept separate and apart from the Employer's own money.

ARTICLE 26 - COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT AMENDMENTS

26.01 The wage rates and other provisions set out in this agreement may be amended by mutual agreement if there are significant changes in the industry or for specific projects to enable the Employer to compete with non-union competition or with other specific union project agreement rates. Either party may request that negotiations commence by giving notice in writing. The Employer and the Union agree to have representatives meet for discussions within thirty (30) days of receiving the request from the other party. Any amendment resulting from the discussions under these terms will be put in writing and signed by a representative of the Employer and a representative of the Union.

26.02 Pre-Job Conferences

- b) A copy of the pre-job conference report will be provided to the Employer and the Union.

by either party of the desire to delete, change, amend or cancel any of the provisions contained herein, within the period from one hundred twenty (120) to sixty (60) days prior to the renewal date. Should neither of the parties give such notice, this Agreement will renew for a period of one (1) year.

- 27.02 Should negotiations not be completed prior to the expiration date of this Agreement, all negotiated items will be retroactive from the date of signing to the expiration date of the expired agreement.
