THIS AGREEMENT MADE AND ENTERED

BETWEEN

ST. JOSEPH'S VILLA, DUNDAS
(HEREINAFTER CALLED THE "EMPLOYER")
OF THE FIRST PART

AND

THE CANADIAN UNION OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES
AND ITS LOCAL 1404
(HEREINAFTER CALLED THE "UNION") OF THE SECOND PART

WHEREAS the right of the resident to receive uninterrupted, skilful, and efficient care cannot be questioned, and it is the responsibility of the Employer to ensure efficient operations and to therefore require the complete cooperation of its employees.

AND WHEREAS it is important that harmonious relations be continued between the Employer and its employees, the parties hereto are entering into a collective agreement as set out hereafter for the purpose of providing an orderly arrangement for the handling of any grievances which may properly arise, and to set forth those wages and working conditions which have been mutually agreed upon.

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH AS FOLLOWS:

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION

- 1.01 The Employer agrees to recognize the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent of all lay employees of St. Joseph's Villa at 56 Governor's Road, Dundas, Ontario, save and except professional and medical staff, graduate nursing staff, undergraduate nurses, graduate pharmacists, undergraduate pharmacists, graduate dieticians, student dieticians, supervisors, persons above the rank of supervisor, technical personnel and office staff and persons for whom any trade union held bargaining rights as of February 9, 1988.
- 1.02 For the purpose of this Collective Agreement, the categories of employees are defined as follows:
- a) Regular Part-time Employee
One who is scheduled on a regular basis for less than 24 hours per week.

- b) Casual Part-time Employee
One who is employed on a random basis to fill in for any other employee.
- c) Temporary Full-time Employee
One who is employed not less than 24 hours each week for a specific period of time in excess of one (1) month and not exceeding six (6) months, or for a specific period of time in excess of one (1) month and not exceeding twelve (12) months in relation to an employee leave of absence per Article 16.
- d) Full-time Employee
One who is employed regularly for more than 24 hours per week.

1.03 It is understood that where the general term "part-time" is used within this Agreement, and unless otherwise stated, it shall be taken to mean all regular and casual part-time, as well as temporary full-time employees.

1.04 Whenever the singular, masculine, or feminine is used in this Agreement, it shall be considered as if the plural, feminine or masculine has been used where the context of the party or parties hereto so required.

ARTICLE 2 - RELATIONSHIP

2.01 No Discrimination

The parties agree that there shall be no discrimination within the meaning of the Ontario Human Rights Code against any employee by the Union or the Employer. The Employer and the Union further agree that there will be no intimidation, discrimination, interference, or restraint exercised or practiced by either of them or their representatives or members.

2.02 It is agreed that the Union and the employees will not engage in union activities except as provided in this Agreement during working hours or hold meetings at any time on the premises of the Employer without the permission of Human Resources.

2.03 The Employer and the Union agree that they shall observe and support existing government legislation.

2.04 The Employer and the Union agree that all employees are entitled to a workplace free of discrimination and harassment of any kind. The Employer and the Union further agree that a claim by an employee that he/she has been sexually harassed, and the matter not resolved through the established Villa policy, shall be treated as a grievance commencing at step 3 of the grievance procedure. Where the alleged harasser is the person who would be responsible for administering the Villa's policy, the matter will be referred to step 3 immediately.

- 2.05 The Union shall be provided a copy of any written notice provided to an employee that he or she may be subject to termination, demotion, transfer, or other adverse impact for innocent absenteeism.

ARTICLE 3 - RESERVATION OF MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.01 The Union recognizes and acknowledges that the management of the institute and direction of the working force are fixed exclusively in the Employer. The Employer shall exercise these rights in a fair and reasonable manner consistent with the provisions of the collective agreement. Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:
- a) Maintain order and efficiency.
  - b) Determine the nature and kind of business and locations of premises, equipment and materials to be used, the control of materials and equipment, the methods and techniques of work, the content of jobs and the required qualifications, scheduling of work, the number of employees to be employed, the extension, limitation, curtailment or cessation of operations or any part thereof, and to determine and exercise generally those functions which remain with the Employer except as limited by the provisions of this Agreement.
  - c) Make, enforce, and alter, from time to time, rules, and regulations to be observed by the employees, provided that when new rules are enacted a copy shall be given to the Union and an opportunity given to them to make representations.
  - d) To hire, classify, direct, promote, demote, transfer, discipline, suspend and discharge employees, to assign employees to shifts, and to increase and decrease working forces, provided that a claim of improper classification, promotion, demotion, transfer, discipline or suspension or a claim by an employee that he has been disciplined without reasonable cause, may become the subject of a grievance, and be dealt with as hereinafter provided.
  - e) All matters concerning the operation of the Villa not specifically dealt with in this Agreement shall be reserved to management and shall be its exclusive responsibility.

ARTICLE 4 - (i) UNION SECURITY

- 4.01 The Union will identify as union dues a sum equal to the regular monthly amount, which will be deducted by the Employer from each employee covered by this Agreement, save and except persons employed under a special government program.

It is understood that any wages paid directly by the Villa to persons employed under government programs will be subject to union dues deductions. It is further understood that there will be no loss of hours for regular staff as a result of persons being employed under such programs.

4.02 Direct Remittance

Such dues shall be deducted bi-weekly and remitted to the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Union of Public Employees not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following. Such deductions so remitted shall be accompanied by two copies of the list of those employees from whom such deductions have been made. Said list shall be copied to CUPE Local 1404.

- 4.03 i) In the case of new employees hired after the effective date of this Agreement, check off of dues shall commence in the employee's first pay period following the date of employment.
- ii) All offers of employment made to successful external applicants shall include information that a collective agreement is in effect and that source deductions will be made from their pay for union dues.
- iii) The Employer further agrees to schedule an introductory presentation of not more than 15 minutes to unionized workers at the scheduled general orientation session. The Employer shall inform the union seven (7) days in advance of the scheduled session so that arrangements can be made for a representative of the union to attend and deliver the presentation without loss of pay.

4.04 The Union shall notify the Employer of any changes in the amount of the monthly union dues and such notification shall be the Employer's conclusive authority to make the deduction specified.

4.05 In consideration of the deduction of Union dues by the Employer, the Union agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Employer against any claims or liabilities arising or resulting from the operation of this Article.

4.06 At the same time that Income Tax (T4) slips are made available, the Employer shall include the amount of union dues paid by each Union member in the previous year.

4.07 No employee may enter into a written or verbal agreement with the Employer or his/her representative which conflicts with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 4 - (ii) CONTRACTING OUT

4.08 In order to provide job security for the members of the bargaining unit, the Employer agrees that no employee will be laid off or have his/her employment terminated by the result of contracting out work or services of the kind performed by its employees. Contracting out to an employer who is organized and who will employ the employees of the bargaining unit who would otherwise be laid off or terminated, with similar terms and conditions of employment, is not a breach of this Agreement.

- 4.09 It is agreed that the above provision shall not apply to work contracted out as a result of an emergency or mechanical breakdown.

ARTICLE 5 - NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

- 5.01 In view of the orderly procedures established by this Agreement for the settling of disputes and the handling of grievances, the Union agrees that it will not cause, direct, or consent to any strike, slowdown or stoppage of work, either complete or partial, on the part of any of the employees represented by the Union, and if such action is taken by the employees the Union will instruct the said employees to return to work, and perform their usual duties in the usual manner and to resort to the grievance procedure established herein for the settlement of any complaint or grievance.
- 5.02 The Employer agrees that there will be no lockouts during the life of this Agreement.
- 5.03 The word "strike" and the word "lockout" shall have the meaning as set forth in the Labour Relations Act, as amended.

ARTICLE 6 - CORRESPONDENCE

- 6.01 a) All correspondence between the parties hereto, arising out of this Agreement or incidental hereto shall pass to or from the Manager of Human Resources of the Employer or his/her appointee and the President of the Union or designate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all replies to grievances shall be sent from the Employer to the Chief Steward of the Union.
- b) The President of the Union will advise the Employer in writing of the name of any designate.
- 6.02 All official documents regarding Local 1404 shall be signed by the President or official designate(s).

ARTICLE 7 - UNION REPRESENTATION

- 7.01 The Employer agrees to recognize the following representatives of the Union:
- a) Twelve (12) stewards from among the employees three (3) of which shall be representatives of the BSO, with representation on all shifts.
- i) It is understood that a representative of the Union shall not have their schedule changed to meet the representation requirements and 7.01 a) shall not impact any leave of absence, vacation, or any other rights under this Collective Agreement.

- b) A Negotiating Committee of not more than two (2) full-time employees, two (2) part-time employees, one (1) BSO employee and a chairperson of the Committee.
- c) The Employer will recognize a Grievance Committee composed of the Chief Steward and not more than three (3) employees selected by the Union who have completed their probationary period. A general representative of the Union may be present at any meeting of the Committee. The purpose of the Committee is to deal with complaints or grievances as set out in this Collective Agreement.

A committee member shall suffer no loss of earnings for time spent during their regular scheduled working hours in attending grievance meetings with the Employer up to, but not including arbitration.

7.02 The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of such representatives and of any changes in personnel of their representatives before the Employer shall recognize them.

7.03 Probationary employees shall not be eligible to serve as stewards or union committee members.

7.04 Union representatives may leave their work without loss of basic pay to attend to Union business on the following conditions:

- a) Such business must be between the Union and the Management; the time shall be devoted to the prompt handling of necessary business.
- b) The steward concerned shall obtain the permission of the supervisor or designate before leaving his/her work. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- c) The time away from work shall be reported to the supervisor in accordance with the time-keeping methods of the department in which the steward is employed.
- d) A Chief Steward or designate may, in the absence of any steward, assist in the presentation of any grievance, or with any steward function.
- e) The Employer reserves the right to limit such time if it deems the time so taken to be excessive; such limits will not be unreasonably exercised.

- f) The Union Negotiations Committee may leave work without loss of basic pay to attend negotiations between Union and Management, up to conciliation and inclusive of interest arbitration.
- g) Employees who are required to attend negotiations on their regularly scheduled day off, shall be paid at their straight time hourly rate, regardless of the number of hours worked in the pay period, to a maximum of 7.5 hours. In the event that negotiations extend beyond 7.5 hours on the employee's scheduled day off, there shall be no further compensation paid or owing to the employee. Such employees will, however, be granted a lieu day off without pay within the same pay period.
- h) In the period six (6) months prior to the termination of the collective agreement, each member of the bargaining committee shall be entitled to two (2) days union leave to prepare for negotiations in addition to those covered by Article 16.

- 7.05
- a) An employee shall have the right to have a steward/union representative present when being disciplined if the employee so requests. The Employer shall advise the employee of their right to have a union steward/representative present when being disciplined. The Employer will endeavour to discuss any problems with an employee within a reasonable time frame.
  - b) A union steward/representative may be present, if available, for non-disciplinary meetings if requested by the employee.

- 7.06 The Union shall have the right to have a National Representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees present in all matters arising between the Union and the Employer. The Union will provide the Employer with timely notice prior to the attendance of the National Representative at any meetings with the Employer.

Management's ability to deal with any matter shall not be unreasonably delayed as a result of this right.

7.07 Workload Complaints

1. Either the Union or the Home may submit a complaint in writing relating to workload to the Labour Management Committee. In this regard, workload complaint means the assignment to an individual employee or group of employees of a resident or residents that is not consistent with proper resident care.
2. The written workload complaint, to the extent possible, should be detailed as to facts and reasons. The complaint should be submitted at least one (1) week before the meeting of the labour Management Committee.

3. The written workload complaint must constitute an agenda item for discussion at the meeting of the Labour Management Committee.
4. Both the written complaint and the written response shall be attached to and form part of the minutes of the Labour Management Committee where the complaint was discussed.

ARTICLE 8 - (i) SENIORITY AND PROBATION

- 8.01
- a) Employees shall be probationary employees until they have completed forty-five (45) working days. If, at the option of the employer, an employee is retained for the aforementioned period, the employee's name shall be placed on the seniority list consistent with the employee's category of employment and the seniority earned since date of hire. With the written consent of the Employer, the probationary employee and the President of the Local Union or designate, such probationary period maybe extended. Any extensions agreed to will be in writing and will specify the length of the extension.
  - b) While probationary employees appear on the seniority list for convenience and record-keeping purposes only, it is understood that probationary employees do not have seniority status until they have first completed their probationary period but are otherwise entitled to seek Union representation.

8.02 Seniority shall accumulate on the following basis:

- a) Full-time
A full-time employee shall accumulate seniority on the basis of the total number of calendar years worked as a full-time employee. Adjustments to the seniority list shall be made four (4) times per year and such adjustments shall be calculated as follows:

Total number of calendar days within the adjustment period as a full-time employee divided by 365 days.
- b) Part-time
A part-time employee shall accumulate seniority on the basis of one year for each 1950 hours worked. Adjustments to the seniority list shall be made four (4) times per year and such adjustments shall be calculated as follows:

Total number of hours worked within the adjustment period divided by 1950 hours.

A part-time employee cannot accrue more than one (1) year's seniority in a twelve (12) month period.

Effective May 26, 2019, a part-time employee shall accumulate seniority on the basis of one year for each 1800 hours worked. Adjustments to the seniority list shall be made four (4) times per year and such adjustments shall be calculated as follows:

Total number of hours worked within the adjustment period divided by 1800 hours.

A part-time employee cannot accrue more than one (1) year's seniority in a twelve (12) month period.

- c) Where two (2) or more employees commence work on the same day and time, seniority preference will be determined by a draw. The Chief Steward of the Union or designate shall be present to witness the draw.

- 8.03 The Employer shall maintain the seniority lists and shall supply the union with up-to-date copies four (4) times per year for posting on all bulletin boards. The seniority lists shall be supplied during the months of January, April, July, and October and will be effective the last day of the final pay period of the month ending closest to, but not extending past March 31st, June 30th, September 30th, and December 31st. The seniority list shall indicate the employee's seniority and most recent date of hire.
- 8.04 Seniority shall operate on a bargaining unit wide basis. The seniority of an employee shall be given preference when considering promotion, demotions (except in the case of disciplinary demotion), layoffs, and in recalling employees from layoffs, provided the senior employee already possesses the necessary knowledge, qualifications, skills, and efficiency to perform the work available, as well as or better than the less senior employee.
- 8.05 The release or discharge of an employee during the probationary period shall not be the subject of a grievance or arbitration. The Employer will inform the union of the release or discharge of a probationary employee.
- 8.06 No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without his/her consent. In the event an employee transfers out of the bargaining unit and returns to the bargaining unit within a period of six (6) calendar months, the employee shall accumulate seniority during the period of time outside the bargaining unit. Seniority shall not accrue for subsequent transfers outside of the bargaining unit that occur within six (6) months from the date of the employee's return to the bargaining unit. If an employee is transferred out of the bargaining unit for a period in excess of six (6) months, he/she shall retain seniority accumulated up to the date of leaving the unit but will not accumulate any further seniority. If such an employee later returns to the bargaining unit, he/she shall be placed in a job consistent with his/her seniority. Such return shall not result in the layoff or bumping of an employee holding greater seniority. An employee not returned to the bargaining unit within twenty-four (24) months shall forfeit bargaining unit seniority with the exception of HRC or WSIB issue(s).

- 8.07 An employee transferring laterally from one department to another shall maintain vacation preference according to unit wide seniority. Such employee shall not be placed at the bottom of the vacation priority list posting.
- 8.08 In the event that an employee transfers between full-time and part-time employment categories, as defined in Article 1.02, his/her seniority shall be adjusted to include seniority earned while working in the previous category.
- 8.09 An employee shall lose his/her seniority standing and his/her name shall be removed from the seniority listing and employment deemed terminated for any of the following reasons:
- a) If the employee is dismissed for just cause;
  - b) If the employee voluntarily resigns or quits the employ of the Employer;
  - c) If the employee is absent without permission for two (2) or more consecutive scheduled working days, or overstays a permitted leave of absence and fails in either case to furnish the Employer with a reason acceptable to the employer for such absence;
  - d) If the employee has been continuously laid off, due to lack of work, for the lesser of his/her length of seniority or eighteen (18) months;
  - e) If the employee retires;
  - f) If the employee who is recalled to work fails to advise the Employer, within three (3) working days exclusive of Saturday and Sunday or statutory holidays, of the giving of notice sent by registered mail to the employee's last address on record with the Employer, that he/she intends to return to work;
  - g) If the employee fails to return to work within a period of five (5) working days of being so notified to do so by the Employer;
  - h) In the case of part-time employees, if the employee has not worked or received payment by the Employer for work performed for a period of six (6) months for any reason, unless covered by 8.09 (d) above;
  - i) In the case of part-time employees, failure to respond regularly to calls for reporting to duty and/or regularly being unavailable to work when called.

ARTICLE 8 - (ii) TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 8.10 The Villa undertakes to notify the Union ninety (90) days in advance, as far as is practical, of any technological changes which the Villa has decided to introduce which will significantly change the status of employees within the bargaining unit.
- 8.11 The Villa agrees to discuss with the Union the effect of such technological changes on the employment status of employees and to consider practical ways and means of minimizing the adverse effect, if any, upon employees concerned.

ARTICLE 9 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 9.01
- a) A grievance may arise only from a dispute concerning the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Agreement, it being understood that no such grievance shall challenge the discharge of a probationary employee.
  - b) No letter of warning or other action shall be used for the purpose of taking or justifying disciplinary action against an employee unless a copy of such letter has been given to the employee concerned within seven (7) calendar days after the discovery of the occurrence which brought about the warning unless an extension has been requested due to the need for further investigation or scheduling a meeting under 7.05(a). The Union shall receive a copy of such letter no later than one (1) day after the employee concerned is notified. Discipline notices shall be expunged from employees' records eighteen (18) months after the incident if the record remains discipline free.
  - c) Any letter of reprimand, suspension or any other sanction will be removed from the record of an employee eighteen (18) months following the receipt of such letter, suspension, or other sanction provided that the employee's record has been discipline free for one (1) year. Leaves of absence in excess of thirty (30) continuous calendar days will not count toward the eighteen (18) month period noted above.
- 9.02 It is the mutual desire of the parties hereto that complaints of employees shall be adjusted as quickly as possible, and it is understood that an Employee has no grievance until he/she has first given the immediate supervisor the opportunity of adjusting the complaint. Such complaint shall be discussed with the immediate supervisor within four (4) working days after the circumstances giving rise to it have occurred and failing settlement within four (4) working days it shall be taken up as a grievance, at Step 1, within four (4) working days following advice of the supervisor's decision. Working day under this article shall exclude Saturday, Sunday, recognized holidays, vacations, or days off of the griever.

9.03 Step No. 1

The employee and the steward shall, within four (4) working days following the advice of the employee's immediate supervisor's decision not to adjust the complaint, submit the grievance in writing signed by the employee directly involved to the employee's supervisor. Such grievance shall set out the specific article that is alleged to have been violated. The supervisor shall reply to the grievance in writing. If a settlement satisfactory to the employee concerned is not reached within four (4) working days or within any longer time that might be agreed upon, then Step 2 may be invoked provided such later action has commenced within two (2) working days after the completion of Step 1.

Step No. 2

Failing a satisfactory settlement of the dispute under Step 1, the employee concerned may submit the grievance to the union grievance committee who may then take the grievance up with the Department Director or his/her appointee, at a meeting arranged for that purpose. The Department Director or his/her appointee shall reply to the grievance in writing. If a satisfactory settlement at this stage of procedure is not reached within four (4) working days or such additional time as may be mutually agreed upon, then Step 3 may be invoked provided such later action has commenced within two (2) working days after Step 2 has been completed.

Step No. 3

Failing a satisfactory settlement under Step 2, the grievance committee may then refer the grievance to the Human Resources Department of the employer for the purpose of arranging a meeting within five (5) working days with a view to settling the grievance. The Human Resources Manager or his/her appointee shall make a mutually convenient arrangement for such a meeting. It is understood that either party, if it wishes, may arrange for the attendance of its representatives who met on the grievance at the earlier steps. It is further understood that the Union shall limit their representatives to three (3) employees. The Human Resources Manager or appointee shall reply to the grievance in writing. If final settlement is not reached within five (5) working days following the day upon which deliberation commenced, or such additional time as may be mutually agreed upon then the grievance may be referred to a board of arbitration as herein provided.

9.04 Any difference arising directly between the Employer and the Union involving the interpretation or alleged violation of this Agreement must be discussed between the parties at a meeting established for that purpose prior to it becoming a grievance. Failing a satisfactory settlement following the meeting, either party may submit the issue in writing to be dealt with as a grievance commencing at Step 3 of the grievance procedure. Such grievance shall be submitted no later than four (4) days following the date of the meeting unless an agreement has been reached between both parties to extend the time limits.

9.05 The parties acknowledge that the time limits set out in both the grievance and arbitration procedures must be strictly complied with except by written agreement to extend them and failure to so comply shall result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned notwithstanding the provision of Section 48(16) of the Labour Relations Act.

- 9.06 Where there is more than one grievance on the same issue, the parties may consolidate the grievance in order to have the grievances processed through the grievance procedure as a single grievance. Such grievances shall commence at Step 2.

ARTICLE 10 - DISCHARGE/SUSPENSION

- 10.01 A claim by an Employee, who has completed his/her probationary period and has acquired seniority standing, that he/she has been discharged or suspended without just cause from his/her employment shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with Human Resources or his/her appointee within three (3) working days of the alleged grievance. Such special grievance shall commence at Step 3 and may be settled by confirming the Employer's action in dismissing or suspending the Employee, or by another arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the conferring parties or, if necessary, the board of arbitration. Wherever the Employer deems it necessary to suspend or discharge an employee, the Employer shall notify the Union of such suspension or discharge in writing.
- 10.02 Each employee shall have reasonable access to his/her personnel file for the purpose of reviewing any evaluations or formal disciplinary notations contained therein, in the presence of the Manager of Human Resources or designate. An employee has the right to request copies of any evaluations in this file.

ARTICLE 11 - ARBITRATION

- 11.01 a) In the event that arbitration of a grievance which has been properly processed through the grievance procedure is desired by either party, then the other party shall be notified in writing not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the Employer's response to the Step 3 meeting. Such notice shall contain the name of the appointee to a board of arbitration named by the party invoking arbitration. It is understood that any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable may also become a subject for arbitration. The recipient of the notice shall, within five (5) days, advise the other party of the name of its appointee to the board of arbitration. The two (2) appointees so selected shall, within five (5) days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third (3rd) person, who shall be the chairperson. If the two (2) appointees fail to agree upon a chairperson within the time limit, the Ministry of Labour of the Province of Ontario, upon the request of either party, within three (3) days thereof, shall appoint an impartial chairperson. The majority decision of the board of arbitration shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

- b) By agreement of the parties, unresolved grievances may be referred to mediation. The mediator shall be selected by mutual agreement of the parties and the expenses shall be shared equally.

11.02 The Board of arbitration shall not have jurisdiction or authority to alter or modify any of the provisions in lieu thereof, or to give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this agreement.

11.03 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expense of the arbitrator appointed by it, and the parties will equally share the expenses of the chairperson.

ARTICLE 12 - JOB POSTING

12.01 A vacancy shall be defined as a position that is placed on the master schedule on a continuous basis. When a vacancy occurs in the department, the position shall be posted within three (3) weeks from the last day worked by the incumbent, except where the parties have agreed otherwise during this three (3) week period. The position shall be awarded on the following basis: seniority, knowledge, qualifications, skills, and abilities.

Where more than one applicant has the knowledge, qualifications, skills, and abilities required by the position seniority shall be the determining factor.

The successful candidate shall have 24 hours to respond to the offer and accept the position. Candidates may submit a written expression of interest form to the Employer should a position be awarded during an absence from the workplace.

- 12.02 a) When a vacancy occurs, or a new position is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall post for five (5) working days a notice of such vacancy or position on all bulletin boards, in order that employees may have the opportunity to apply for such position. No posting will be made in the case of temporary vacancies, which are not expected to exceed one (1) month or three (3) months for BSO positions, which vacancies shall include those caused by illness, vacation periods, leaves of absence, etc. Notices shall contain the following information:
- i) General nature of position
  - ii) Required knowledge and education
  - iii) Shift and hourly rate
  - iv) expected start date (on or before)

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Paid Vacation Days} &= \text{Avg. # of Days Worked/Week} \div \text{# Days in Standard Work Week} \times \text{Vacation Category} \\ &= 5 \div 5 \times 15 \\ &= 15 \\ \\ \text{Vacation Pay} &= \text{Avg. # of Hours Per Day Worked} \times \text{Paid Vacation Days} \times \text{Hourly Rate} \\ &= 6.5 \times 15 \times $12.00 \\ &= $1,170.00 \end{aligned}$$

Example 2

Employee with 3 years of seniority works 4 days per week at 7.5 hours per day at an hourly rate of $12.00.

$$\begin{aligned} \text{Paid Vacation Days} &= \text{Avg. # of Days Worked/Week} \div \text{# Days in Standard Work Week} \times \text{Vacation Category} \\ &= 4 \div 5 \times 15 \\ &= 12 \\ \\ \text{Vacation Pay} &= \text{Avg. # of Hours Per Day Worked} \times \text{Paid Vacation Days} \times \text{Hourly Rate} \\ &= 7.5 \times 12 \times $12.00 \\ &= $1,080.00 \end{aligned}$$

For example, if vacation was taken when the employee normally would have worked 5.5-hour shifts, then vacation pay for each shift would be for 5.5 hours only.
