Article 16 – Processing of Grievances

- 16.01 “Grievance” means a complaint in writing that concerns the interpretation, application, administration or operation of the Collective Agreement, submitted by an employee, group of employees, the Union, or the Employer.

16.02 Complaint Stage:

- (a) The parties recognize the value of informal discussion between employees and their supervisors to the end that problems might be resolved without recourse to a formal grievance. An employee who wishes to use the informal complaint stage must give notice of this intention in writing to their supervisor within seven (7) calendar days of the action or event which is the subject of the complaint. The supervisor shall advise the employee of their right to representation.

An employee may present a grievance pursuant to Clause 16.05 if no informal complaint is made when the employee first becomes aware or ought reasonably have become aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

In the event the complaint is an alleged violation of Clause 9.03 by the supervisor, the employee shall proceed directly to a formal grievance.

- (b) If the informal discussions do not produce an agreed upon resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the notice given in Clause (a) above, or such further time as the employee and the supervisor may agree to, then the employee may file a formal grievance within twenty-eight (28) days of the grievance occurring or such longer period which the employee and the employee’s supervisor may agree in writing.

Formal Grievance

- 16.03 An employee who wishes to present a grievance, shall transmit this grievance in writing to the C.A.O. or designate who will provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received by the C.A.O. or designate.
- 16.04 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a formal grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:
- (a) Level 1 – Chief Administrative Officer (C.A.O.)
 - (b) Mediation/Arbitration
- 16.05 (a) An employee may be assisted and/or represented by the Union at the complaint level and/or when presenting a grievance.
- (b) Where there is an alternative administrative or statutory process through which the employee is entitled to pursue a complaint, then the employee may choose between that alternative process and this grievance procedure. The employee is not entitled to a duplication of process.
- (c) The Union shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure subject to Clause 16.05 (a) and (b).
- 16.06 The Employer shall reply to an employee's grievance at Level 1 of the grievance procedure within twenty-one (21) calendar days after the grievance is presented.
- 16.07 The Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the Union with a copy of the Employer's decision at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the employee.
- 16.08 The time limits stipulated in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement in writing between the Employer and the employee and, where appropriate, the Union representative.
- 16.09 Grievances referred to arbitration can only be withdrawn by the employee with the prior approval of the Union; otherwise an employee may, by written notice to their immediate supervisor, abandon a grievance.
- 16.10 Any employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond the employees' control, the employee was unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.
- 16.11 No person who is employed in a managerial or confidential capacity shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause an employee to abandon their grievance or refrain from exercising their right to present a grievance, as provided in the Collective Agreement.
- 16.12 Where an employee has presented a grievance, and the grievance has not been dealt with to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may refer the grievance to arbitration in accordance with the arbitration procedure specified in this Agreement.

Policy Grievance:

16.13 A policy grievance shall be defined as a dispute involving a question of application or interpretation of any Article of this Agreement which arises directly between the Employer and the Union. The provisions of this Article may not be used with respect to a grievance directly affecting an individual employee or a group of employees. A policy grievance seeks a declaratory decision concerning the proper application or interpretation of the Collective Agreement. It shall be submitted within twenty-eight (28) calendar days following the circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

Employer Grievance:

16.14 The Employer shall have the right to file a grievance concerning the interpretation, application, or alleged violation of the Collective Agreement. A grievance brought by the Employer shall be submitted to the Union within twenty-eight (28) calendar days from when the Employer first becomes aware of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.

Mediation

- 16.15 (a) The Union and the employer may within ten (10) calendar days after the date in which the final Level 1 response has been received, jointly submit a request to the Federal Conciliation and Mediation Services (FMCS) for mediation assistance. In the case where such a request is jointly submitted, it is understood by the parties the referral to arbitration timelines in Clause 17.04 will be suspended during this step.
- (b) If the mediation is unsuccessful in resolving the grievance, then either party may invoke the Arbitration Procedure as per Clause 17.01 within twenty (20) calendar days of the conclusion of the mediation process.
- (c) Failure by either party to apply for arbitration within the prescribed time limits as in Clause 16.15 (b) above shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance unless, due to circumstances beyond their control, the party was unable to comply with the prescribed time limits.

Article 17 – Arbitration Procedure

17.01 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Collective Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this Collective Agreement has been violated, either party, subject to Article 16.04, may after exhausting the grievance procedure notify the other party that it is submitting the difference or allegation to arbitration.

17.02 Any arbitration arising out of this Collective Agreement shall be conducted before a single arbitrator mutually agreed to by the parties.

- 17.03 A reference to arbitration shall be made in writing sent to the other party. The reference shall provide the name, address and telephone number of the party's representative and include a list of names of persons proposed for selection as an arbitrator.
- 17.04 Within fourteen (14) days of receiving the reference to arbitration, the responding party will, in writing, acknowledge receipt of the reference to arbitration and provide the name, address and telephone number of its representative. The acknowledgment will also either agree to one of the proposed arbitrators, or propose other arbitrators in response.
- 17.05 If the parties have not agreed to an arbitrator within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of the written acknowledgment referred to in Article 17.04, either party may, pursuant to the Canada Labour Code, request the Minister of Labour to make an appointment.
- 17.06 The arbitrator shall have the authority and powers conferred by the Canada Labour Code. The parties agree that grievances referred to arbitration should be dealt with as quickly as possible and shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that this happens.
- 17.07 The award of the arbitrator is final and binding upon the parties.
- 17.08 Each party shall pay one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator. Each party is responsible for its own costs and expenses associated with an arbitration.

Re: Human Resources Review and Organizational Review

The Parties acknowledge that the Employer plans to conduct a Human Resources review prior to the expiry of this Collective Agreement.

It is agreed by the parties that any such HR review of jobs and job descriptions will be done in accordance with recognized pay equity principles and will be based on the duties and responsibilities performed.

Once the review has been completed, approved by council and a date of implementation established, the Union agrees to meet with the Employer within 30 days of the final Council decision to review revised job descriptions/job titles if any and new classifications if any and the Employer agrees to provide the Union with an advance copy prior to an initial meeting for such discussion and review.

Where significant duties are added to or deleted from a position as a result of this review, or where changes in duties are deemed significant in the aggregate, then the classification of the position in question shall be reviewed by the parties and, failing agreement, will be subject to the following dispute resolution:

The Union may file a grievance directly at the final level of the grievance procedure with the CAO. Failing settlement, either party may process the dispute pursuant to Article 17 Arbitration.

Where a new bargaining unit position is created as a result of the review, the Employer will assign a classification level and pay rate in accordance with the Classification and pay levels in Appendix "A".

Should the Parties agree to revise the classification level of an existing position Article 30 will apply.

Where existing, the employer will provide the Union with copies of the following:

1. RFP
2. Benchmarks and any job description scoring guidelines
3. Revised or new job descriptions
4. Proposed pay rate changes

This Letter of Understanding will expire upon final implementation of the Council decision or the expiry of the Collective Agreement whichever comes first.
