Faith Protect

Overview

In participation with the leading insurer of faith organizations in Canada, Totten Insurance Group is proud to present a newly developed product designed specifically for places of worship. Your faith customers may range from traditional religions occupying older buildings in smaller communities, to the newer, growing religions to Canada who may have large, modern buildings situated in urban centres. With this in mind, we offer many coverage options addressing your customers varying needs and requirements. "Faith Protect" is designed to protect the assets of your clients. The product provides comprehensive, yet flexible (customable) coverage, allowing you as the broker to tailor the coverage to your specific customer's needs while knowing that the protection provided is equal to or above anything else available in Canada.
