Contractors Pollution Liability Insurance

Important Notice

Claims-Made and Notified Insurance

This policy is issued on a claims-made and notified basis. This means that this policy only covers Claims (as defined) first made against you during the Policy Period (as defined) and notified to the insurer in writing during the Policy Period. This policy does not provide cover for any Claims made against you during the Policy Period if at any time prior to the commencement of the Policy Period you became aware of facts which might give rise to those Claims being made against you, or if the Pollution conditions which gave rise to the Claim against you existed before the Retroactive Date specified in the Schedule.

Section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that where you gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a Claim against you as soon as was reasonably practicable after you became aware of those facts but during the Policy Period, the insurer cannot refuse to pay a Claim which arises out of those facts, when made, because it was made after the Policy Period had expired.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subrogation

This policy contains provisions which have the effect of excluding or limiting the insurer's liability in respect of a loss where you have prejudiced the insurer's rights of subrogation or where you are a party to an agreement which excludes or limits the insurer's rights to recover the loss from another party. You are hereby notified of the effect of these provisions.

Code of Practice

The Insurance Industry has developed a General Insurance Code of Practice. This aims to raise the standards of practice and service in the Insurance Industry and it includes the following:

- 1) When you lodge a claim we will tell you in plain language what information we need and how you should go about making your claim.
- 2) We will respond promptly to any request you make for assistance with your claim and it will be considered and assessed promptly.

Dispute Resolution

We are committed to handling any complaints about our products or services efficiently and fairly. If you have a complaint:

- 1) Contact your insurance intermediary and they may raise it with us.
- 2) If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved you may request that the matter be reviewed by management by writing to:

The Compliance Manager
AIG
Level 12, 717 Bourke Street, Docklands
VICTORIA 3008

- 3) If you are still unhappy, you may request that the matter be reviewed by our Internal Dispute Resolution Committee ("Committee"). We will respond to you with the Committee's findings within 15 working days.
- 4) If you are not satisfied with the finding of the Committee, you may be able to take your matter to an independent dispute resolution body, Insurance Ombudsman Services Limited (IOS). This external dispute resolution body can make decisions of which AIG are obliged to comply. Contact details are:

Privacy Notice

This notice sets out how AIG Australia Limited (AIG) collects, uses and discloses personal information about:

- you, if an individual; and
- other individuals you provide information about.

Further information about our Privacy Policy is available at www.aig.com.au or by contacting us at australia.privacy.manager@aig.com or on 1300 030 886.

How we collect your personal information

AIG usually collects personal information from you or your agents.

AIG may also collect personal information from:

- Our agents and service providers;
- other insurers;
- people who are involved in a claim or assist us in investigating or processing claims, including third parties claiming under your policy, witnesses and medical practitioners;
- third parties who may be arranging insurance cover for a group that you are a part of;
- providers of marketing lists and industry databases; and
- publically available sources.

Why we collect your personal information

AIG collects information necessary to:

- underwrite and administer your insurance cover;
- maintain and improve customer service; and
- advise you of our and other products and services that may interest you.

You have a legal obligation under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose certain information. Failure to disclose information required may result in AIG declining cover, cancelling your insurance cover or reducing the level of cover, or declining claims.

To whom we disclose your personal information

In the course of underwriting and administering your policy we may disclose your information to:

- entities to which AIG is related, reinsurers, contractors or third party providers providing services related to the administration of your policy;
- banks and financial institutions for policy payments;
- assessors, third party administrators, emergency providers, retailers, medical providers, travel carriers, in the event of a claim;
- other entities to enable them to offer their products or services to you; and
- government, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies, or as required by law.

AIG is likely to disclose information to some of these entities located overseas, including in the following countries: United States of America, United Kingdom, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, India, Hong Kong, New Zealand as well as any country in which you have a claim and such other countries as may be notified in our Privacy Policy from time to time.

You may request not to receive direct marketing communications from AIG.

Access to your personal information

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you. In summary, you may gain access to your personal information by submitting a written request to AIG.

In some circumstances permitted under the Privacy Act 1988, AIG may not permit access to your personal information. Circumstances where access may be denied include where it would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals, or where it would be unlawful.

Complaints

Our Privacy Policy also contains information about how you may complain about a breach of the applicable privacy principles and how we will deal with such a complaint.

Consent

If applicable, your application includes a consent that you and any other individuals you provide information about consent to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information as set out in this notice.
