

Professional Indemnity

A traditional Lloyd's offering with a modern bespoke service

Our business

Our Professional Indemnity account is written on a primary as well as proportional and excess of loss basis and can also incorporate other insurance perils within the cover. We offer legal liability claims cover for all major professions.

Additionally we have an established presence and reputation across Asia for proportional and excess treaties both on a single and cross class basis.

Our goals

To offer our brokers an excellent professional service based on a consistent approach, in-depth understanding of clients' businesses and bespoke solutions.

Our approach

We recognise that a one size fits all approach does not reflect the myriad of risks across the globe, our underwriters have the expertise to offer a flexible and tailored service and the decision making authority to provide a swift and lasting response to our clients ever changing needs.

Our team of highly experienced underwriters are committed to developing an in-depth understanding of each individual clients' business. Developing and maintaining strong and lasting relationships is central to our approach. Our underwriters travel extensively to meet with clients and are dedicated to delivering a consistent level of service to all.

Territorial scope

We write a global book of business, with a strong portfolio of US, UK, European and Australian direct insurance clients.

Our focus

We write a worldwide book of business and are committed to developing our global partnership and client network.

Our extensive and broad expertise means we can offer cover for a wide spectrum of professions including but not limited to:

- Architects
- Accountants
- Engineers
- Surveyors
- Lawyers
- Insurance Brokers
- Design and Construction
- Media Technology
- Miscellaneous classes
