20) Sanctions

any claim where the payment of such claim would expose the Underwriter to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America

Conditions

1) It is a condition precedent to the Insured's right to be indemnified under this Policy that

a) in the event of a claim or the discovery of information that may give rise to a claim the Insured shall not admit liability and no admission arrangement offer promise or payment shall be made by the Insured without Underwriters prior consent

b) the Insured shall give to the person(s) named for this purpose in the schedule under the heading 'Notification of Claims' immediate notice in writing of

- i any claim first made against the Insured during the Policy Period
- ii any Circumstance of which the Insured shall first become aware during the Policy Period
- iii the discovery of any loss that is likely to be the subject of indemnity hereunder
- iv the discovery of any reasonable cause for suspicion of any dishonesty or fraud on the part of a present partner or director or employee of the Insured whether giving rise to a claim or loss under this Policy or not

Such notice having been given as required in 1) b) ii or iii or iv above during the Policy Period any subsequent claim arising from such Circumstance or loss shall be deemed to have been made during the Policy Period provided however that this deeming provision shall only have effect if the Insured complies within a reasonable time and at the Insured's own expense

A) with the Underwriters standard requirement hereby stated that the notification should state precisely why a claim is likely and if so from whom

B) with any reasonable request by the Underwriters for further information in relation to the matters notified

C) with any request by the Underwriters, reasonable by reference to the risk and potential amount of any consequent claim for steps to be taken to reduce or avert the said risk

For the avoidance of doubt no other condition of this Policy shall have the effect of limiting the Underwriters right to refuse to give effect to this deeming provision in the event of a failure by the Insured to comply with a request under 1) b) ii or iii or iv above

c) following notification of a claim or Circumstance Underwriters shall be entitled at their discretion to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the investigation defence or settlement of any such matter

Nevertheless neither the Insured nor Underwriters shall be required to contest any legal proceedings unless a Queens Counsel (to be mutually agreed upon by the Insured and Underwriters) shall advise that such proceedings should be contested

- d) it is a condition precedent that every letter of claim writ or summons shall be forwarded unanswered to the persons named in the schedule immediately they are received and the Insured shall at all times in addition to their obligations set out above provide such information and co-operation and respond within such times as to allow Underwriters to comply with relevant practice directions and protocols as may be issued from time to time by the Head of Civil Justice and the timetables contained therein
 - e) it is a condition precedent that the Insured shall at their own expense give all such assistance and information within the timescale that Underwriters may reasonably require
- 2) It is a condition precedent to the Insured's right to be indemnified under this policy that the Insured has and will continue to use its best endeavours to ensure that all sub contractors and/or sub consultants appointed by the Insured and/or for whom the Insured are responsible as a professional maintain Professional Indemnity Insurance to a level of not less than £500,000. In the event that the Insured are not able to verify the existence of such Insurance the Insured undertake to inform Underwriters as soon as practicable and furnish Underwriters with such additional information as may be reasonably requested
It is further understood and agreed that in such circumstances Underwriters will be entitled to charge an additional premium
 - 3) Underwriters may at any time pay to the Insured the amount of the Limit of Indemnity (less the Excess and any sum already paid or expended during the Policy Period) or any lesser amount for which in Underwriters opinion any claim or claims can be settled and any related Defence Costs incurred and consented to for any claim and such payment shall be deemed to be a total and full discharge of Underwriters liability for that claim
Underwriters shall not be responsible for any loss that the Insured may claim to have sustained by reason of Underwriters having so acted
 - 4) If any payment is made under the terms of this Policy the Insured grants to Underwriters all rights of recovery against any parties from whom recovery may be made. However Underwriters agree to waive any rights of recovery against any employee or former employee of the Insured unless liability has resulted in whole or in part from a dishonest fraudulent criminal or malicious act or omission on the part of any such employee
 - 5) If the Insured notifies any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent as regards amount or otherwise this Policy shall become void and all claims hereunder shall be forfeited
 - 6) Should matters arise which would entitle Underwriters to avoid liability under this Policy by reason of any misrepresentation mis-statement or non-disclosure Underwriters may at their sole discretion as an alternative to avoiding this Policy give notice in writing to the Insured that the cover afforded hereunder shall continue in full force and effect save that there shall be excluded from the indemnity afforded hereunder any claim which has arisen or which may arise which is related to matters involving such misrepresentation mis-statement or non- disclosure
 - 7) Beginning with the Insured's Proposal for this Policy and throughout the Policy Period the Insured is under a continuing duty to disclose as soon as reasonably practicable all material changes in information supplied to Underwriters as part of the Proposal for this Policy

- 8) Any claim or claims resulting from one and the same act error or omission or a series of acts errors or omissions arising out of the same proximate cause shall for the purpose of the Limit of Indemnity and the Excess under this Policy be treated as a single claim
- 9) For the avoidance of doubt it should be noted that the indemnity afforded under the terms of this Policy is provided jointly to all parties constituting the Insured as defined herein and for all purposes this Policy shall be considered as a joint Policy with a single Limit of Indemnity
- 10) Any dispute or difference between the Insured and Underwriters arising from this Policy shall be referred to a Queen's Council of the English Bar to be mutually agreed upon between Underwriters and the Insured or to any other party as may be mutually agreed. The dispute shall be arbitrated in accordance with the statutory provisions as to arbitration for the time being in force. The findings of the appointed arbitrator shall be binding upon Underwriters and the Insured and the costs of such an exercise shall be allocated by the arbitrator on the basis he/she considers fair and equitable
- 11) If Underwriters agree to accept payment by instalments then in the event of any default in payment any instalment by the Insured the full outstanding balance shall become payable immediately
If the Insured then fails to pay such amount within seven days of written notice sent by or on behalf of Underwriters to them of the default in payment Underwriters may terminate this Policy by giving seven days notice in writing to the Insured
- 12) The subscribing insurers' obligations under contracts of insurance to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent of their individual subscriptions. The subscribing insurers are not responsible for the subscription of any co-subscribing insurer who for any reason does not satisfy all or part of its obligations.
- 13) The parties are free to choose the law applicable under this contract but unless specifically agreed to the contrary this Policy is subject to English law
