About Advantage Underwriting

Advantage Underwriting Limited is an MGA based in Jersey, Channel Islands, originally established in 2006. We provide a range of insurance policy covers to an established network of regional insurance brokers throughout the UK. These include:

- Commercial Combined
- Combined Liability
- Property Owners
- HNW Household Insurance
- Professional Indemnity

Our aim is to provide our UK brokers with a personal underwriting service through dedicated individual underwriter contacts, efficient service standards, and access to markets previously unavailable to them.

We are also a Lloyd's coverholder and are able to underwrite and bind risks on behalf of Lloyd's syndicates. If you would like to take advantage of the benefits that Advantage Underwriting can bring to your brokerage then please contact us for a discussion.
