Expertise: Access to a large community of Risk and Security Managers, whose insight will help shape an organisation's strategic approach to 'people risk' and its implementation - helping clients meet their duty of care obligation.

Breadth: Not simply limited to kidnap and ransom scenarios, our prevention services cover a wide-range of people risks, from boardroom level guidance and crisis planning to personal security advice for business travellers.

Intelligence: Pro-active intelligence and training services are delivered online or face to face. Through our Global Watch website, clients also have complimentary access to travel information, country guides, city reports and daily alerts.
