ALLIED WORLD SECURESM DIRECTORS & OFFICERS LIABILITY

At Allied World, Management Liability is our specialty. We know the challenges and the protection that's necessary and specific to our clients' industry. In today's challenging business environment, management teams are more vulnerable than ever to lawsuits, investigations and other types of claims. Heightened scrutiny from customers, regulators, investors/donors, shareholders, employees and other stakeholders leaves little room for error. Of all the decisions a management team can make, perhaps the most far reaching centres around making sure that they have comprehensive management liability protection from a trusted and secure provider.

We offer a wide array of Directors & Officers (D&O) coverage because we understand that corporate and personal assets need to be protected from potentially devastating losses. The comprehensive market and product knowledge of our underwriters and their commitment to delivering enhanced service has led to our reputation for excellent working relationships and professional standards.
