

Security for the Road Ahead.

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY

Professional people are at risk of attracting legal claims for negligent advice and/or services. These claims can be very expensive involving defence costs and actual indemnification and can run for years.

Sometimes it can take some time for a professional indemnity claim to surface. If a lawyer is consulted regarding the issuance of a will, the wrongful advice may not show before the opening of the will.

New Solutions to New Risks.

In general there is a growing awareness of the possibility to file a claim against a professional as a result of a real or alleged professional error or omission.

ANV is offering professional indemnity insurance on a claims made basis, to protect professionals against their liability for any unintentional wrongful act, error or omission.
