Your duties in the event of a claim or circumstance

There are legal protocols applying to professional negligence claims which impose time constraints and procedural rules as to how claims should be dealt with. We have specialists who will work hand in hand with you to deal with these issues and if litigation is necessary, We will arrange for a solicitor to represent you.

When you first become aware of a claim or circumstance it is important you DO NOT:

- Make any admission of liability
- Settle or make or promise any payment
- Incur costs without our approval
- Take any action which might prejudice our position or our ability to investigate a claim or circumstance
- Provide details of your professional indemnity policy or disclose that we have been notified to the claimant

It is a usual feature of Professional Indemnity policies that it is a condition precedent to insurance coverage being granted that there has been no admission of liability and further that we receive your full cooperation.

What is meant by a circumstance?

There is no single or simple definition but the following may help in understanding what is likely to deem a notifiable circumstance

A notifiable circumstance could include:

- An intimation by any third party, whether expressed or implied, of an intention to make a claim against you
- Any criticism or dispute, whether expressed or implied, relating to your performance, or of any party for which you are responsible
- Any awareness by you that any services provided or actions taken by you, or by any party for whom you are responsible, have or could have failed to meet the standard required or have led, or may lead to a third party loss
- A situation where you are having to investigate your work in order to justify your actions

In addition to companies within the Ardonagh Group, third parties (for example insurers or loss adjusters) deliver some of our products or provide all or part of the service requested by you. In these instances, while the information you provide will be disclosed to these companies, it will only be used for the provision and administration of the service provided (for example verification of any quote given to you or claims processing, underwriting and pricing purposes or to maintain management information for analysis).

This may also include conducting a search with a credit reference bureau or contacting other firms involved in financial management regarding payment.

We may also share your information with anyone you have authorised to deal with us on your behalf.

How long do we keep your information for?

We will not keep your personal information longer than is necessary for the purpose for which it was provided unless we are required by law or have other legitimate reasons to keep it for longer (for example if necessary for any legal proceedings).

We will normally keep information for no more than 6 years after termination or cancellation of a product, contract or service we provide. In certain cases, we will keep your information for longer, particularly where a product includes liability insurances or types of insurance for which a claim could potentially be made by you or a third party at a future date, even after your contract with us has ended.

Fair Presentation of the Risk

We are keen to work in partnership with You and avoid any misunderstandings.

You must make a fair presentation of the risk to Us at inception, renewal and variation of the policy.

Should You be in any doubt as to whether information should be presented to Us, You must

- discuss it with Your insurance agent, or
- disclose it to Us.

We may, at Our absolute discretion, avoid the policy and refuse to pay any claims where any failure to make a fair presentation is:

1. deliberate or reckless; or
2. of such other nature that, if You had made a fair presentation, We would not have issued the policy.

We will return the premium paid by You unless the failure to make a fair presentation is deliberate or reckless.

If We would have issued the policy on different terms had You made a fair presentation, We will not avoid the policy (except where the failure is deliberate or reckless) but We may instead, at Our absolute discretion;

1. reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, the proportion for which We are liable being calculated by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which We would have charged had You made a fair presentation; and/or
2. treat the policy as if it had included such additional terms (other than those requiring payment of premium) as

We would have imposed had You made a fair presentation.

For the purposes of this condition references to:

1. avoiding a policy means treating the policy as if it had not existed from the inception date (where the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk occurs before or at the inception of the policy), the renewal date (where the failure occurs at renewal of the policy), or the variation date (where the failure occurs when the policy is varied),
2. refunds of premium should be treated as refunds of premium back to the inception date, renewal date or variation date as the context requires, issuing a policy should be treated as the references to issuing the policy at inception, renewing or alteration of the Policy as the context requires, premium should be treated as the premium payable for the particular contract of insurance which is subject to this condition (where there is more than one contract of insurance).
