The cost of crime:

Our commercial crime insurance goes beyond reimbursing the financial theft, forgery, or fraud of a crime. It includes other quantifiable costs:

- Contractual penalties
- Investigative costs
- Defence costs in the event of being sued due to a crime loss
- Interest on money stolen
- Court attendance costs in the event of hearing
- Public relations expenses to pay for brand and reputation costs

Claims example:

A company experienced a third party fraud following the impersonation of the CEO to transfer funds to a new bank account, unverified by the client. The incident ended up being reported in the local press. Transferred funds totalled £424,000, however the additional costs of hiring a media consultant to handle the reputational damage, the investigation, and the interest on the money stolen money meant to total loss equalled £483,000.

Chubb's commercial crime product covered the total loss.
