

Terrorism & Political Violence

Political violence and terrorism plus

CHUBB®

Why you may need dedicated cover

There are several potential coverage gaps between standard property, terrorism and political violence policies which may mean your exposures aren't insured.

Government terrorism pool schemes, where they exist, all operate differently leading to a lack of consistency of coverage and terms between countries.

Insurance laws in many countries prohibit the placement of insurance with carriers that are unlicensed locally, meaning local policies may be required.

Chubb Shield

We are the only insurer to offer a fully integrated property damage and business interruption (PDBI) and terrorism and political violence policy wording. Called Chubb Shield, our proposition is designed to eliminate gaps in cover and uncertainty of terms and conditions between different policies.

Our multinational capabilities

Multinational corporations face an increasingly complex compliance burden in respect of diverse local insurance laws.

Non-admitted placements are illegal in some countries, where there may be local insurance tax, compulsory local retentions, cash before cover and other requirements. This can make remitting claims payments complicated, leaving corporations exposed to both financial and reputational risk.

Chubb understands these challenges and is a market leader in helping clients and their brokers design and implement compliant multinational programme solutions that are compliant and perform as expected when a loss occurs.

The right protection

“Despite the proven inadequacy of standard property damage, business interruption and terrorism cover, a worryingly high number of firms still seem unaware of the gaps in their existing policies.

Risk managers need to understand exactly what their changing exposures are, what insurance cover they actually have, what the wordings on these policies mean and where the gaps may lie. Only then can they be sure they have the right protection in place to defend business operations.”
