Shipowners' P&I

Why buy cover?

Our Shipowners' P&I insurance is designed to insure both the contractual and legal liabilities that you may face as the owner of a vessel.

Cover can be divided into four main areas:

- Liability to third parties – This covers costs when an individual or a company suffers some kind of financial loss that is not covered by any contract as a result of an error that you have made. For example, pollution, collision and personal injury claims.
- Liability to crew – As the owner of a ship you are considered responsible for the care and safety of the crew that you hire. This section covers medical costs as well as the costs of repatriating an injured crew including compensation costs arising from illness, permanent injury and death.
- Liabilities to cargo - This covers you for the shortage of, non-delivery of or damage to cargo.
- Costs – This covers any costs incurred by mounting a defence against a legal liability claim, typically including survey expenses, lawyers' fees and formal investigations.

We provide cover for a wide range of situations and offer additional insurance to cover specific risks, if needed. We cover Shipowners' risks and liabilities in respect of:

- Loss of or damage to cargo
- Death and personal injury
- Collision
- Fines
- Pollution
- General average
- Wreck removal
