

Workplace Violence and Stalking Threat

Did you know that each year nearly 2 million American workers are victims of workplace violence? In fact, according to Occupational Health and Safety Administration (OSHA), workplace violence is the second leading cause of work-site deaths in the US.

With recent high profile workplace attacks, more businesses are boosting security efforts and taking added precautions to prevent acts of workplace violence. XL Catlin understands these risks and offers a comprehensive policy to help mid-size companies respond and recover from such incidents.
