YOUR DUTY TO DISCLOSE

This policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Act). Under that Act You have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to tell the Insurer anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the Insurer's decision to insure You and on what terms.

You have this duty until the Insurer agrees to insure You.

You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract. You do not need to tell the Insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk that is insured; or
- is common knowledge; or
- the Insurer knows or should know as an insurer; or
- the Insurer waives compliance with Your duty of disclosure.

If You do not tell the Insurer something

If You do not tell the Insurer anything You are required to, the Insurer may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount the Insurer will pay You if you make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell the Insurer is fraudulent, the Insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Epsilon are committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles.

Epsilon may collect personal information in order to assess an application for insurance and, if the application is accepted, to administer and manage the insurance policy and respond to any claim made. We may also use your personal information for the purpose of designing or underwriting new insurance products, for research and analytical purposes, to perform administrative functions (including for example accounting, risk management and staff training) and to comply with our legal obligations.

We may disclose personal information to third party service providers and related companies who assist us in processing any application or claim for insurance, such as reinsurers, our advisers, persons involved in claims, external claims data collectors and verifiers. Epsilon may also disclose your personal information to our related companies overseas who assist us in providing our products and services, including providing support in relation to the assessment of insurance applications and claims. These third party service providers or related companies may be located in the United States of America, Switzerland, Germany, Slovakia, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

By providing your personal information to us, you consent to us making these disclosures. If you choose not to provide your personal information, we may not be able to assess your insurance application or administer and manage your insurance policy and respond to any claim made.

Our Privacy Policy contains information on how you may access personal information we hold, or seek correction of your personal information and information on how to make a complaint about the handling of your personal information and how complaints are handled.

If you require more information, ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy or visit www.epsiloninsurance.com.
