CLEARANCE PROCEDURES - PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

The clearance procedures listed below have been created as a guide by 'us' to ensure that the production ('scheduled media') to be insured has been fully cleared in order to avoid any possible litigation.

You should consult with your lawyer regarding the clearance process and ensure that both you and your lawyer monitor all elements of the production process, in addition to ensuring third party contributions have been fully cleared, through to the final cut. The below is not an exhaustive list.

Prior to the first dissemination of each production, you and your lawyer should ensure that:

1. Any script prior to filming must be reviewed by a suitably qualified lawyer to determine whether it contains any defamatory content or if there is potential for a claim to arise. Any content which is potentially defamatory or contentious must be reviewed and cleared by a libel lawyer with all changes followed and implemented.
2. All necessary licences, clearances and consents from contributing third parties must be obtained, for all literary material within the production. Any limitations or reservations must be advised to us. Where a completed production is being acquired, all rights must still be secured and the origin of the production traced in order to ensure all rights have been obtained. Any excerpts which constitute "fair use" must be cleared by a suitably experienced lawyer and presented to us.
3. Written agreements must be in place with all contributors such as creators, authors, writers, owners of any contributing material including but not limited to quotations, film clips and music. You and your lawyer must ensure that within these agreements, you have authority to use their material in the production in perpetuity. You must also have acquired all necessary rights to distribute each production for use in all media.
4. All releases must give you the authority to edit material and make any changes to the production.
5. Any fictional characters or entities must have been subject to a cast negative check. The names of organisations and products must be checked to avoid inadvertent identification.
6. All synchronisation and performance rights within each production must be obtained from copyright owners. This also applies to previously recorded music.
7. A robust process should be in place to deal with any unsolicited submissions including but not limited to ideas, formats, or storylines received from third parties. All origins of the work must be determined, and quit claims must be obtained where necessary.
8. Any problems relating to clearance or gaps in respect of underlying rights must be advised to us now or as soon as they occur.
