The Insured shall not, except at his own cost, voluntarily make any payment, assume any obligation or incur any expenses other than for the first aid to others at the time of accident.

3. Action against Insurer:

No action shall lie against the Insurer under any Insuring Agreement of this policy including the Insuring Agreement relating to "Defense-- Settlement-- Supplementary Payments" unless, as a condition precedent thereto, there shall have been full compliance with all of the terms of this policy, nor until the amount of the Insured's obligation to pay shall have been finally determined either by judgment against the Insured after actual trial or by written agreement of the Insured, the claimant and the Insurer. Every action or proceeding against the Insurer shall be commenced within one year next after the date of such judgment or written agreement and not afterwards. If this policy is governed by the law of Quebec, every action or proceeding against the Insurer shall be commenced within three years from the time the right of action arises. Nothing contained in this policy shall give any person or organization any right to join the Insurer as a co-defendant in any action against the insured to determine the Insured's liability.

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the Insured or of the Insured's estate shall not relieve the Insurer of any of its obligations hereunder.

4. Subrogation:

In the event of any payment under this policy, the Insurer shall be subrogated to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore against any person or organization and the Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured shall do nothing after loss to prejudice such rights.

5. Other Insurance:

The insurance afforded by this policy is primary insurance, except when stated to apply in excess of or contingent upon the absence of other insurance. When this insurance is primary and the Insured has other insurance which is stated to be applicable to the loss on an excess or contingent basis the amounts of the Insurer's liability under this policy shall not be reduced by the existence of such other insurance. When both this insurance and other insurance apply to the loss on the same basis, whether primary, excess or contingent, the Insurer shall not be liable under this policy for a greater portion of the loss than that stated in the applicable contribution provision below:

(a) Contribution by Equal Shares:

If all of such other valid and collectable insurance provides for contribution by equal shares, this Insurer shall not be liable for a greater proportion of such loss than would be payable if each insurer contributes an equal share until the share of each insurer equals the lowest applicable limit of liability under any one policy or the full amount of the loss is paid, and with respect to any amount of loss not so paid the remaining insurers then continue to contribute equal shares of the remaining amount of the loss until each such insurer has paid its limit in full or the full amount of the loss is paid.

(b) Contribution by Limits:

If any of such other insurance does not provide for contribution by equal shares, this Insurer shall not be liable for a greater proportion of such loss than the applicable limit of liability under this policy for such loss bears to the total applicable limit of liability of all valid and collectable insurance against such loss.

6. Changes:

Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or by any other person shall not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this policy or estop the Insurer from asserting any right under the terms of this policy; nor shall the terms of this policy be waived or changed, except by endorsement issued to form a part of this policy.

7. Assignment:

Assignment of interest under this policy shall not bind the Insurer until its consent is endorsed hereon; if however, the Named Insured shall die or be adjudged bankrupt or insolvent within the policy period, this policy, unless cancelled, shall, if written notice be given to the Insurer within sixty days, after the date of such death or adjudication, cover the Named Insured's legal representative as the Named Insured except in the Province of Quebec where no notice is required.

8. Notice:

Any written notice to the Insurer may be delivered at or sent by registered mail to the agent through whom this policy was issued or to any branch of the Insurer in Canada. Written notice may be given to the Named Insured by letter personally delivered to him or by registered letter addressed to him at his last post office address notified to the Insurer; or, except in Quebec, where no address is notified and the address is not known, addressed to him at the post office of the agency, if any, from which the application was received. In this condition the expression "registered" shall mean registered within or without Canada. Notice to the first Named Insured shall constitute notice to all Insureds.

9. Cancellation-- Termination

(a) This policy may be terminated:

(i) by the Insurer giving to the Named Insured 15 days written notice of termination by registered mail or personal delivery;

(ii) by the Named Insured at any time on written request.

(ii) where the premium is developed by an estimated basis, the Insurer will refund the excess of the premium above the premium earned, when determined.

(c) Where the policy is terminated by the Named Insured,

(i) and where the premium is developed on other than an estimated basis, the Insurer will refund the excess of the paid premium above the short rate premium for the time the policy has been in force calculated in accordance with the short rate premium table in use by the Insurer, and except in Quebec, subject to the retention of the minimum premium, if any, provided by the policy, or

(ii) where the premium is developed by an estimated basis, the Insurer will refund the excess of the paid premium above the premium earned, when determined and except in Quebec, subject to the retention of the minimum premium, if any, provided by the policy.

(d) Refund of premium may be made by money, postal or express company money order or by cheque payable at par.

(e) Except in Quebec, the fifteen days mentioned above in this condition commences to run on the day following receipt of the registered letter at the post office to which it is addressed.

(f) In Quebec, the Notice of Cancellation from the Insurer takes effect 15 days after receipt by the Insured at the last known address.

(g) Premium adjustment may be made at the time cancellation is effected and if not then made shall be made as soon as practicable after cancellation becomes effective but payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

10. Declarations:

By acceptance of this policy, the Named Insured agrees that the statements in the declarations are his agreements and representations, that this policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations and that this policy embodies all agreements existing between himself and the Insurer or any of its agents relating to this insurance.

11. Cross Liability:

The insurance as is afforded by this policy shall apply in respect to any claim or action brought against any one Insured by any other Insured.

The coverage shall apply in the same manner and to the same extent as though a separate policy had been issued to each Insured. Any breach of a condition of this policy by any Insured shall not affect the protection given by this policy to any other Insured. The inclusion herein of more than one Insured shall not operate to increase the limit of liability under this policy.

12. Currency Clause:

It is agreed that all limits of insurance, premiums, and other amounts as expressed in this policy are in Canadian Currency.

SECTION II - WHO IS AN INSURED

1. If you are designated in the Declarations as:
 - a. An individual, you and your spouse are insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of a business of which you are sole owner.
 - b. A partnership or joint venture, you are an insured. Your members, your partners, and their spouses are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business.

2. Each of the following is also an insured:
 - a. Your employees, other than your executive officers, but only for acts within the scope of their employment by you. However, none of these employees is an insured for:
 - 1) "Bodily injury" or "personal injury" to you or to a co-employee while in the course of his or her employment; or
 - 2) "Bodily injury" or "personal injury" to any person who at the time of injury is entitled to benefits under any workers compensation or disability benefits law or a similar law; or

3. Any organization you newly acquire or form, other than a partnership or joint venture, and over which you maintain ownership or majority interest, will be deemed to be a Named Insured if there is no other similar insurance available to that organization. However:
 - a. Coverage under this provision is afforded only until the 90th day after you acquire or form the organization or the end of the policy period, whichever is earlier;
 - b. Coverages A and D do not apply to "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurred before you acquired or formed the organization; and
 - c. Coverage B does not apply to "personal injury" arising out of an offense committed before you acquired or formed the organization.

No person or organization is an insured with respect to the conduct of any current or past partnership or joint venture that is not shown as a Named Insured in the Declarations.

 - c. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing "actions".
2. The Products-Completed Operations Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage A for compensatory damages because of "bodily injury" and "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard".

HLL included

3. The Personal Injury Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage B for the sum of all compensatory damages because of "personal injury".
4. Subject to 2. above, if applicable, the Each Occurrence Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of:

6. Subject to 4. above, the Medical Expense Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage C for all medical expenses because of "bodily injury" sustained by any one person.

The limits of this Coverage Form apply separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than twelve (12) months, starting with the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than twelve (12) months. In that case the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for the purpose of determining the Limits of Insurance.

SECTION IV - COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS

1. Bankruptcy.

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate will not relieve us of our obligations under this Coverage Form.

2. Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Claim or Action.

- a. You must see to it that we are notified promptly of an "occurrence" which may result in a claim.

Notice should include:

- 1) How, when and where the "occurrence took place; and
- 2) The names and addresses of any injured persons and of witnesses.

- b. If a claim is made or "action" is brought against any insured, you must see to it that we receive prompt written notice of the claim or "action".

- c. You and any other involved Insured must:

- 1) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or "action";
- 2) Authorize us to obtain records and other information;
- 3) Cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the claim or "action"; and
- 4) Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may also apply.

- d. No insureds will, except at their own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for first aid, without our consent.

3. Legal Action Against Us.

No person or organization has a right under this policy;

- a. To join us as a party or otherwise bring us into an "action" asking for compensatory damages from an Insured; or
- b. To sue us on this policy unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

A person or organization may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgment against an Insured obtained after an actual trial; but we will not be liable for compensatory damages that are not payable under the terms of this policy or that are in excess of the applicable limit of insurance. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the Insured and the claimant or the claimant's legal representative. Every "action" or proceeding against us shall be commenced within one (1) year next after the date of such judgment or agreed settlement and not afterwards. If this policy is governed by the law of Quebec every action or proceeding against us shall be commenced within three (3) years from the time the right of action arises.

4. Other Insurance.

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the insured for a loss we cover under Coverages A, B, or D of this Coverage Form our obligations are limited as follows:

- a. Primary Insurance

This insurance is primary except when b. below applies. If this insurance is primary, our obligations are not affected unless any of the other insurance is also primary. Then, we will share with all that other insurance by the method described in c. below.

- b. Excess Insurance

This insurance is excess over any of the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis:

HLL included

- 1) That is Property Insurance such as, but not limited to, Fire, Extended Coverage, Builder's Risk, Installation Risk or similar coverage for "your work" or for premises rented to you; or
- 2) If the loss arises out of the maintenance or use of watercraft to the extent not subject to Exclusion f. of Coverage A (Section I).

When this insurance is excess, we will have no duty under Coverage A, B or D to defend any claim or "action" that any other insurer has a duty to defend. If no other insurer defends, we will undertake to do so, but we will be entitled to all the insured's rights against all those other insurers.

When this insurance is excess over other insurance, we will pay only our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of:

- 1) The total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this insurance; and
- 2) The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

We will share the remaining loss, if any, with any other insurance that is not described in this Excess Insurance provision and was not bought specifically to apply in excess of the Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations of this policy.

c. Method of Sharing

If all of the other insurance permits contribution by equal shares, we will follow this method also. Under this approach each insurer contributes equal amounts until it has paid its applicable limit of insurance or none of the loss remains, whichever comes first.

If any of the other insurance does not permit contribution by equal shares, we will contribute by limits. Under this method, each insurer's share is based on the ratio of its applicable limit of insurance to the total applicable limits of insurance of all insurers.

5. Premium Audit.

- a. We will compute all premiums for this Coverage Form in accordance with our rules and rates.
- b. Premium shown in this Coverage Form as advance premium is a deposit premium only. At the close of each audit period we will compute the earned premium for that period. Audit premiums are due and payable on notice to the first Named Insured. If the sum of the advance and audit premiums paid for the policy term is greater than the earned premium, we will return the excess to the first Named Insured subject to the retention of the minimum premium shown in the Declarations of this Coverage Form.
- c. The first Named Insured must keep records of the information we need for premium computation, and send us copies at such times as we may request.

6. Representations.

By accepting this policy you agree:

- a. The statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete;
- b. Those statements are based upon representations you made to us; and
- c. We have issued this policy in reliance upon your representations.

7. Separation of Insureds, Cross Liability.

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned to the first Named Insured, this insurance applies:

- a. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and
- b. Separately to each insured against whom claim is made or "action" is brought.

8. Transfer of Rights of Recovery Against Others to Us.

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this Coverage Form, those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring "action" or transfer those rights to us and help us enforce them.

Code of Consumer Rights and Responsibilities

Insurers (including Lloyd's Underwriters), along with the brokers and agents who sell home, auto and business insurance are committed to safeguarding your rights both when you shop for insurance and when you submit a claim following a loss. Your rights include the right to be informed fully, to be treated fairly, to timely complaint resolution, and to privacy. These rights are grounded in the contract between you and your insurer and the insurance laws of your province. With rights, however, come responsibilities including, for example, the expectation that you will provide complete and accurate information to your insurer. Your policy outlines other important responsibilities. Insurers and their distribution networks, and governments also have important roles to play in ensuring that your rights are protected.

Right to Be Informed

You can expect to access clear information about your policy, your coverage, and the claims settlement process. You have the right to an easy-to-understand explanation of how insurance works and how it will meet your needs. You also have a right to know how insurers calculate price based on relevant facts. Under normal circumstances, insurers will advise an insurance customer or the customer's intermediary of changes to, or the cancellation of a policy within a reasonable prescribed period prior to the expiration of the policy, if the customer provides information required for determining renewal terms of the policy within the time prescribed, which could vary by province, but is usually 45 days prior to expiry of the policy. You have the right to ask who is providing compensation to your broker or agent for the sale of your insurance. Your broker or agent will provide information detailing for you how he or she is paid, by whom, and in what ways. You have a right to be told about insurers' compensation arrangements with their distribution networks. You have a right to ask the broker or agent with whom you deal for details of how and by whom it is being paid. Brokers and agents are committed to providing information relating to ownership, financing, and other relevant facts.

Responsibility to Ask Questions and Share Information

To safeguard your right to purchase appropriate coverage at a competitive price, you should ask questions about your policy so that you understand what it covers and what your obligations are under it. You can access information through one-on-one meetings with your broker or agent. You have the option to shop the marketplace for the combination of coverages and service levels that best suits your insurance needs. To maintain your protection against loss, you must promptly inform your broker or agent of any change in your circumstances.

Right to Complaint Resolution

HLL included

Insurers, their brokers and agents are committed to high standards of customer service. If you have a complaint about the service you have received, you have a right to access Lloyd's Underwriters' complaint resolution process for Canada. Your agent or broker can provide you with information about how you can ensure that your complaint is heard and promptly handled. Consumers may also contact their respective provincial insurance regulator for information. Lloyd's is a member of an independent complaint resolution office, the General Insurance OmbudService.

Responsibility to Resolve Disputes

You should always enter into the dispute resolution process in good faith, provide required information in a timely manner, and remain open to recommendations made by independent observers as part of that process.

Right to Professional Service

You have the right to deal with insurance professionals who exhibit a high ethical standard, which includes acting with honesty, integrity, fairness and skill. Brokers and agents must exhibit extensive knowledge of the product, its coverages and its limitations in order to best serve you.

Right to Privacy

Because it is important for you to disclose any and all information required by an insurer to provide the insurance coverage that best suits you, you have the right to know that your information will be used for the purpose set out in the privacy statement made available to you by your broker, agent or insurance representative. This information will not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted by law. You should know that Lloyd's Underwriters are subject to Canada's privacy laws - with respect to their business in Canada.
