

MANAGEMENT LIABILITY INSURANCE

Company leaders are held to a high standard of accountability given their responsibilities and high-profile roles. Increasingly, owners, directors and executives of private companies are facing litigation by a variety of stakeholders — including employees, customers, competitors, creditors, shareholders and regulators. For many private companies and their executives, the costs of defending against such claims could be devastating. If their decisions are challenged through wrongful act allegations or a lawsuit, you need coverage in place to protect their personal assets and the financial interests of the company.

Key coverages designed to help protect your business

Directors & Officers Liability (D&O)

Helps protect directors and officers and/or the company from lawsuit losses (or the advancement of defense costs), for alleged wrongful acts in their capacity as directors and officers. Coverage may extend to defense costs arising out of criminal and regulatory investigations/trials. Intentional illegal acts are not typically covered under D&O policies.

Fiduciary Liability

Helps protect directors, officers, employees and employers who are alleged to have breached their fiduciary duty or made mistakes in the management or administration of employee retirement and benefit plans.

Employment Practices Liability (EPL) – including Third Party Coverage

Helps cover legal costs incurred to defend claims involving: discrimination; wrongful termination; wrongful or constructive dismissal; misrepresentation, discrimination, libel, slander and defamation of character; breach of employment contract; sexual harassment; hostile and abusive work environment; unwelcome sexual advances.

Crime

Helps protect businesses from losses due to business-related crime. Policy protection may cover cash, assets, merchandise, or other property loss when someone perpetrates fraud, embezzlement, forgery, misrepresentation, robbery, theft, or any other type of business-related crime on the company.
