Our contract with You

Where We agree to enter into a Policy with You it is a contract of insurance between Us and You (see the definition of "You" for details of who is covered by this term).

The Policy consists of:

- this document which sets out the standard terms of Your cover and its limitations;
- Your current Schedule issued by Us. The Schedule is a separate document, which shows the insurance details relevant to You. It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this document. Only those sections shown as covered in Your Schedule are insured; and
- any other change to the terms of the Policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an endorsement) before You enter into the Policy. These written changes may vary or modify the above documents where required or permitted by law.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

We reserve the right to change the terms of this insurance where permitted to do so by law.

Any new or replacement Schedule We may send You, detailing changes to Your insurance or the Period of Insurance, will become the current Schedule, which You should carefully read and retain.

Understanding Your Policy and its important terms and conditions

To properly understand the significant features, benefits and risks of this insurance You need to carefully read:

- the rest of this "Introduction and important notices" section – this sets out how You apply for cover, the basis on which We insure You, the duty of disclosure You need to comply with, Our privacy information, Our dispute resolution procedures and other important information;
- the "Words with special meaning" section – this sets out what We mean by certain words used in the Policy. These words begin with a capital letter throughout this document;
- the Cover section, including the standard covers and Optional covers;
- the "General exclusions" section – this sets out the general exclusions and limits that apply to cover and benefits;
- the "General conditions" and "Claims" sections – these set out certain general rights and obligations that You and We have;

- all of the documents that make up the Policy, including the Schedule and any endorsements or other written changes to the cover We issue You with before You enter into the policy or when required or permitted by law – these contain specific details relevant to You and can affect the cover.

Headings are provided for reference only and do not form part of Your Policy for interpretation purposes.

When You enter into the Policy You confirm and warrant that You have read or will read the Policy documents when provided to You.

Summary

Please note that this is a limited summary only and does not form part of the terms of the Policy. The cover is subject to terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations and any endorsements applying to the Policy that are not listed in the summary. You need to read the Policy (i.e. this document and any endorsement, specification, attachment or memoranda affixed (or intended to be affixed) to it and the Schedule) to properly understand the cover provided.

1. Cover summary

We will cover You during the Period of Insurance shown on the Schedule for amounts that You are legally liable to pay as Compensation for Damage to Watercraft in Your physical or legal control and/or certain Personal Injury which occurs during the Period of Insurance and in connection with Your Ship Repair Business (as defined).

We only cover those parties shown in the Schedule unless otherwise stated in the Policy as being a person or entity entitled to cover.

The maximum amount We will pay under the Policy for any one Occurrence and in the aggregate for all Occurrences will not exceed the Limit of Indemnity shown on the Schedule.

2. No Workers Compensation cover

This Policy does not provide cover for any liability under Workers Compensation Law. Such cover is compulsory for employers (except exempt employers) and You should arrange separate insurance.

3. Your obligation to comply with the Policy terms and conditions

You are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Please remember that if You do not comply with any term or condition, We may (to the extent permitted by law) decline or reduce any claim payment and/or cancel Your Policy to the extent We are prejudiced by Your noncompliance.

If more than one person is insured under the Policy, a failure or wrongful action by one of those persons may adversely affect the rights of any other person insured under the Policy.

Applying for cover

When You apply by completing Our application process You need to provide the information We require to determine whether to issue a Policy and if so, on what terms, including (to the extent they are optional):

- the covers and benefits You want (including the business activities You wish to cover);
- the limits You want;
- the Period of Insurance You want;
- the Deductible that You agree to contribute for certain claims;
- whether any standard terms need to be varied (this may be by way of an endorsement).

Where We agree to issue a Policy, cover is provided on the basis:

- that You have paid or agreed to pay Us the premium for the cover provided;
- of the verbal and/or written information provided to Us by You which must have given in accordance with Your Duty of Disclosure.

If You fail to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure We may be entitled to reduce Our liability under the Policy in respect of a claim to the extent Our interests are prejudiced by Your noncompliance and/or We may cancel the Policy. If You have told Us something which is fraudulent, We also have the option of avoiding the Policy (i.e. treating it as if it never existed).

Your Duty of Disclosure and the consequences of nondisclosure, are provided under the heading 'Your Duty of Disclosure'.

Premium

Your premium – the base premium We charge is calculated based on a number of factors such as:

- the cover and benefits provided including the Limit of Indemnity;
- the services You provide, Your past loss history and the total gross receipts generated by Your business;
- Our obligation to pay relevant government taxes and charges. For example, We include an amount that covers any stamp duty and GST payable in relation to the Policy.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Schedule, which will be sent to You after the entry into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy in accordance with the "Cancellation rights under the Policy" section.

How to make a claim

If You need to make a claim under the Policy, please refer to the Claims Section.

Cancellation rights under the Policy

Note: A posted notice is deemed given to You at the time it would have been delivered in the ordinary course of the postal service.

4. Returns for cancellation

If You or We cancel Your Policy We may deduct from the refund amount:

- (i) a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk;

What happens if the duty of disclosure is not complied with?

Where the Insurance Contracts Act applies

If the duty of disclosure is not complied with We may cancel the Policy and/or reduce the amount We pay if You make a claim to the extent Our interests are prejudiced by Your failure to comply with the duty of disclosure. Governing law and jurisdiction

Your Policy is governed by the laws of Australia. Any dispute relating to Your Policy shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of an Australian Court within the State or Territory in which Your Policy was issued.

GST notice

Your Policy has a GST provision in relation to Your premium and Our payment to You for claims. It may have an impact on how You determine the amount of insurance You need. Please read the Policy carefully. Seek professional advice if You have any queries about GST and Your insurance.

Sums Insured

All monetary limits in the Policy may be adjusted for GST in some circumstances (see below).

Claim settlements – Where We agree to pay

When We calculate the amount We will pay to You, We will have regard to the items below:

Acquisition of goods, services and repairs

- (i) Where You are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to Your claim (such as services to repair a Damaged item insured under Your Policy), We will pay the GST amount.

We will pay the GST amount in addition to the Limit of Indemnity or other limits shown in Your Policy or in the Schedule (unless We state GST is included in Sum insured or Limit of Indemnity).

If Your Limit of Indemnity is not sufficient to cover Your loss, We will only pay the GST amount that relates to Our settlement of Your claim.

We will reduce the GST amount We pay by the amount of any input tax credits to which You are or would be entitled.

Payment as compensation

- (ii) Where We make a payment under Your Policy as Compensation instead of payment for a relevant acquisition, We will reduce the amount of the payment by the amount of any input tax credit that You would have been entitled to had the payment been applied to a relevant acquisition.

Where the Policy insures business interruption, We will (where relevant) pay You on Your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by Your Business that is relevant to Your claim.

Disclosure – Input tax credit entitlement

If You register, or are registered, for GST, You are required to tell Us Your entitlement to an input tax credit on Your premium. If You fail to disclose or understate Your entitlement, You may be liable for GST on a claim We may pay. Your Policy does not cover You for this GST liability, or for any fine, penalty or charge for which You may be liable.

Other Insurance/Non-contribution Clause

Where You are aware of insurance or insurances already effected, or which may be subsequently effected covering, whether in whole or in part, Your liability or exposures which are the subject matter of this Policy, You are required to notify Us and must take reasonable steps to provide Us with full information and all reasonable assistance in the recovery of Our rateable proportion of any claim payments We make.

Premium adjustment

The premium for this Policy has been calculated on the estimate of Gross Earnings (without deduction for any subcontracted work) given by You. You are required and agree to take reasonable steps to keep accurate records of all such figures and, on reasonable request, to provide Us with a copy of these records.

Following the expiry of the Period of Insurance You must provide, as soon as reasonably possible, such records as We may reasonably require to determine what the actual Gross Earnings figures were for the Period of Insurance.

The difference between the premium based on the actual figures at the end of the Period of Insurance and the premium calculated at inception will be paid by or allowed to You, as the case may be, but in any event a minimum retained premium equivalent to 75%, or as may otherwise be agreed, of the full premium based on the initial estimates will be retained by Us.

We agree to waive any adjustment of premium where the difference between the actual Gross Earnings and the estimate Gross Earnings given to Us by You is less than 10%, or where a deposit premium of $5,000 or less was charged and the final adjusted premium based on actual figures supplied by You does not exceed $5,000.

Prohibited cover or payments

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Policy to the contrary, ["the insurer" or "we"]* shall not be liable to provide any cover or benefit or pay any claim where the provision of cover or benefit or payment of claim would constitute a breach of any trade or economic sanction, embargo, prohibition or restriction imposed by any of the following: United Nations, United States of America, Australia, European Union, United Kingdom, or New Zealand, or any other applicable national trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations. This clause shall apply where such geographical location, provision of goods, services or other reasons shall contravene such sanction, embargo, prohibition or restriction.
