Important Notice

Your Duty Of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under Section 21 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- ▶ that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- ▶ that is of common knowledge;
- ▶ that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- ▶ as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your nondisclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Interested Parties

We will not insure the interest of any person other than You, unless You have notified Us in writing of such interest, and the interest has been noted in the Policy.

Cancellation Rights

The Insured may cancel their Policy at any time though when the Insured cancels their policy after the effective date of the coverage period, all premiums will be 100% earned by Liberty. Notice of cancellation must be given in writing to Liberty.

Inadequate Space To Answer

If there is inadequate space to answer any of the questions or make any comment or you need to disclose something to us because of your Duty of Disclosure, please attach a separate piece of paper to this questionnaire giving full details of additional information.
