

Chemical and Pharmaceutical Insurance

AIG protects pharmaceutical and high hazard chemical operations of all sizes against complex property damage, business interruption and delay in start-up risks.

Our global network of underwriters, engineers and claims specialists provides expert, efficient service throughout the world. AIG's market-leading capacity and technical expertise enables us to address the most complex needs of a range of specialty, commodity and fine chemical manufacturers and manufacturing, packaging and distribution pharmaceutical operations.