How to make a claim

If you need to make a claim, here's what to do.

1

Before you start

Check your policy booklet and schedule to make sure you have the right cover. You'll need to have the following details to hand before you start your claim.

- ✓ Your policy number
- ✓ Details of the incident - when it happened, who was driving and any damage to your vehicle
- ✓ Details of anyone else involved, including their registration number
- ✓ Details of any passengers (for all the vehicles involved)
- ✓ Details of anyone who was injured
- ✓ Any dashcam footage or photos
- ✓ Details of any witnesses to the incident
- ✓ Details of whether the police attended the incident and any crime reference number, if you have one

2

Start your claim

Call us on 0330 024 2240.

We'll ask you some questions about what happened and talk you through the next steps.

To make a windscreen or window claim, visit www.autoglass.co.uk to use our online claim service or call our Glassline on 0330 024 2270.

3

Leave the rest to us!

Once you've told us about your claim, we'll take care of it all as quickly as we can.

If your vehicle has been damaged, we'll put you in touch with one of our approved repairers and they will let you know whether a courtesy van is available.

We'll give you regular updates on how your claim is going, so you know what to expect and when.

Important

Don't get caught out – you must provide a police crime reference number if you want to claim for loss or damage as a result of theft, attempted theft or malicious damage.

How to make a claim

We'll assess the damage to your vehicle and let you know the next steps.

If your vehicle can be repaired

If you choose to use an approved repairer, we provide a full accident recovery and repair service, including:

- a high-quality repair service carried out by industry-recognised repairers;
- a small courtesy van (such as a Vauxhall Combo) to keep you on the road after an accident, as long as one is available;
- free collection and return of your vehicle; and
- a lifetime workmanship guarantee on all repairs for as long as you own your vehicle (or for five years from the date you transfer ownership of your vehicle to someone else).

We'll pay the repair bill. All you need to do is pay your excess direct to the repairer once the repairs are completed.

If you choose to use a non-approved repairer, you will have to pay an excess of £150 in addition to any compulsory or voluntary excess shown in your schedule. This additional excess will only apply if you do not use one of our approved repairers when you make a claim. We can't guarantee the repairs or the quality of service you will receive from a non-approved repairer.

If your vehicle can't be repaired

If your vehicle can't be repaired, we'll tell you as soon as possible. We'll assess your vehicle and provide a valuation. Once we've agreed the valuation with you, we can make the payment to you by bank transfer to help you get back on the road as quickly as possible.

We take pride in delivering great customer service.

We understand what it's like to be a customer and what makes great service. We're proud to have been awarded the highest level of accreditation by the Institute of Customer Service (ICS), the UK's independent professional customer service body.

Excesses

What you need to pay if you make a claim

Excess is a word insurance companies use to describe the amount you need to pay if you make a claim. You must pay the excess even if the incident you are claiming for was not your fault.

Insurance companies have a standard excess which is usually called the compulsory excess.

You can also choose to have a voluntary excess. This is an amount that you pay as well as your compulsory excess if you need to make a claim. Choosing a voluntary excess can reduce the overall price of your insurance for the year.

If you choose to have a voluntary excess, you'll need to pay both excesses (like in our example).

You (or a named driver) may also have an additional excess known as a young driver or inexperienced driver excess. If so, you must pay this in addition to both your compulsory excess and any voluntary excess you have chosen.

You will also have to pay an excess of £150 if you choose to use an non-approved repairer. (if this applies you will still have to pay the excesses mentioned above.)

It's really important that you check your schedule for details of all the different excesses and when they will apply.

Let's look at our example.

Ben needs to pay an excess of £450. This is made up of his £350 compulsory excess and an additional £100, which is the voluntary excess he chose when taking out the policy.

Because Ben chose to have a voluntary excess, he must now pay both excesses as part of his claim.

So, remember, if something happens to your vehicle, regardless of who is at fault, you'll have to pay all of your excesses - just like Ben did!

Example

1

Ben crashes his vehicle and it can't be repaired.

2

The market value of Ben's vehicle is £5,000.

3

Ben's insurance has a compulsory excess of £350 and he has chosen a voluntary excess of £100.

4

Ben receives a payment of £4,550. This is the market value of his vehicle minus his total excess of £450.

This section explains what will happen if your vehicle has been in an incident and can be repaired.

What we can cover you for

We'll pay to repair damage to your vehicle caused by:

- accident or malicious damage (if you have comprehensive cover);
- fire; or
- theft or attempted theft.

We can choose to use parts or accessories, including green parts, which aren't supplied by your vehicle manufacturer but are of a similar type and quality to the parts and accessories we're replacing.

If the repairs improve the condition of your vehicle, we can ask you to pay part of the repair cost.

You'll have to pay the repairer the total excess shown in your schedule.

Any repairs carried out by our approved repairer are guaranteed for as long as you own your vehicle or for five years from the date you transfer ownership of your vehicle to someone else.

If you are registered for VAT purposes, you will have to pay the VAT on the cost of any repairs and replacement goods. You can claim back the VAT in your tax return, up to the limits allowed by law.

Benefits you receive

Courtesy van

If one is available, you'll be given a small van (such as a Vauxhall Combo) with a manual gearbox to use while your vehicle is being repaired by one of our approved repairers. The courtesy van will be covered under the same terms and conditions as set out in this policy. You must only use the courtesy van in the UK and under the approved repairer's terms of use.

Recovering your vehicle

If your vehicle is damaged and it can't be driven, we'll pay the cost of moving it to the nearest approved repairer or a place where it can be stored safely. If the repairer is within the territorial limits, we'll also pay the cost of returning your vehicle home after it has been repaired.

You and your passengers

We'll make sure that you and your passengers are taken to a safe place if your vehicle can't be driven after an accident.

We'll cover loss of or damage to your vehicle caused by:

- accident or malicious damage (if you have comprehensive cover);
- fire; or
- theft or attempted theft.

If we choose to make a cash payment to settle your claim, the most we'll pay is the market value of your vehicle (at the time of the loss or damage).

If you're paying for your vehicle under a finance agreement, we'll pay any cash payment to the finance company. If there is any money left over after paying the finance company what you owe them, we will pay this to you.

If your vehicle is provided under a lease or contract-hire agreement, we'll pay the lease or contract-hire company the amount needed to settle the agreement or the market value of your vehicle, whichever is less.

Any payment we make will be reduced by the total excess as shown in your schedule.

If your vehicle has a private registration plate, we'll give you 30 days from the date a settlement value is agreed to transfer the private registration onto a DVLA Retention Certificate in your name. Important

It's important that you take steps to reduce the chance of other people tripping over your charging cables. Don't leave cables dangling, or off the ground. They should be put through cable trunking or under some heavy covering to make sure they stay on the ground and are not a danger to others.

Your other insurance benefits

Section 7: Uninsured-driver protection

Benefits you receive

No excess to pay

If possible, provide the name, address and phone number of the person responsible for the accident.

We'll protect you from uninsured drivers . . .

Section 9: Foreign travel

What we can cover you for

Compulsory insurance cover outside the territorial limits

Your policy gives you the minimum cover you need by law to meet your liability to other people while your vehicle is used in:

- any country which is a member of the European Union; or
- any other country which the European Commission is satisfied has made arrangements to meet the requirements of Article (8) of EC Directive 2009/103/EC relating to civil liabilities arising from the use of motor vehicles.

When you are driving your vehicle in these countries, we'll provide the minimum insurance needed in Great Britain.

Benefits you receive

If you use your vehicle in any of the countries described above, your policy automatically provides the cover shown in your schedule for up to 35 days within the period of insurance. To be eligible for this cover:

- your vehicle must be taxed and registered in the territorial limits;
- your vehicle must normally be kept in the territorial limits; and
- you must have a permanent home in the territorial limits.

Your policy gives you cover while your vehicle is being transported by rail or a recognised sea route (including while it is being loaded and unloaded) between any countries this policy provides cover in, as long as:

- you are travelling with your vehicle;
- the total time taken to transport your vehicle isn't more than 65 hours (including any stopovers during the journey); and
- the purpose of transporting your vehicle isn't to permanently export it.

We'll pay customs duty if your vehicle is damaged, the damage is covered by this policy and your vehicle can't be returned to the UK.

What we can't cover you for

- ✘ Anything which isn't covered under Section 1: Loss of or damage to your vehicle or Section 2: Legal liability to other people.

Important

You must take your certificate of insurance with you when taking your vehicle out of the UK.

Your other insurance benefits

Section 10: Personal accident benefits

Benefits you receive

We will pay £5,000 if you, your husband, wife or civil partner dies or suffers:

- total and permanent loss of sight in one or both eyes; or
- total and permanent loss of use of one or both hands or one or both feet.

What we can't cover you for

We won't pay the benefit if the injury or death:

- ✗ is the result of suicide or attempted suicide;
- ✗ happens when the person killed or injured has a higher level of alcohol or drugs in their body than is allowed by law when driving;
- ✗ happens as a result of someone not wearing a seat belt when they have to by law; or
- ✗ happens more than three months after the date of the accident, or isn't a direct result of the accident.

We'll also not pay the benefit if the injury isn't as listed above or if you (the policyholder) are a company or firm.

We won't pay more than £5,000 in any one period of insurance and we won't pay more than £5,000 for a single accident, even if the person killed or injured in the accident is insured under more than one policy with us.

Your other insurance benefits

Section 11: Medical expenses

This section explains what will happen if you have any medical expenses to pay after an accident.

What we can cover you for

We'll cover medical expenses if you or anyone in your vehicle is injured as a result of an accident involving your vehicle.

You will need to send us a receipt for the cost of any medical expenses before we'll make this payment.

Benefits you receive

We'll pay up to £300 per incident for each injured person.

Medical expenses can be confusing so let's explain this further

If you are injured in an accident, you may have to pay for emergency treatment and prescriptions. This section covers these costs.

You must provide a receipt or invoice before we'll pay any claim for medical expenses.

Your no-claims bonus

How your no-claims bonus works

Making a claim will affect your no-claims bonus even if you weren't responsible for the incident you are claiming for (for example, if your vehicle was stolen or damaged by vandals). You could lose part or all of your no-claims bonus. Also, if a claim is made on your policy, the cost of your policy may increase when you renew it.

We won't reduce your no-claims bonus if the damage to your vehicle was caused by an uninsured driver, as long as the conditions set out in Section 7: Uninsured-driver protection are met.

When you renew your policy, your no-claims bonus will be reduced for each claim you have made in the period of insurance. For an example of what would happen if you made a claim within the period of insurance, please see the table below.

Example: How your no-claims bonus (NCB) would be affected at renewal if you made a claim or claims during the period of insurance.

Number of years' no-claims bonus currently available (without NCB protection)	No-claims bonus at the next renewal (without NCB protection)
	No claims in the policy period	One claim in the policy period	Two or more claims in the policy period
1	2	0	0
2	3	0	0
3	4	1	0
4	5	2	0
5	6	3	0
6	7	4	0
7	8	5	0
8	9	6	0
9	10	7	0

Notes: In the table above a claim is where we've made payment for any loss, damage or injury caused to a third party or where any costs paid for damage to your vehicle can't be, or haven't yet been, recovered.

NCB protection means no-claims bonus protection and is explained on the next page.

Your no-claims bonus

No-claims bonus protection

Protecting your no-claims bonus allows you to make a claim without your no-claims bonus being reduced.

If you've chosen to protect your no-claims bonus, this will be shown in your schedule and you'll only lose your no-claims bonus if more than two claims are made in a five-year period. If a claim is made on your policy, the cost of your policy may increase when you renew it.

The table below shows how your no-claims bonus would be affected if you made a claim or claims and you've protected your no-claims bonus.

Example: How your protected no-claims bonus would be affected at renewal if you made a claim or claims during the period of insurance.

Number of years' no-claims bonus currently available (with NCB protection)	No-claims bonus at the next renewal (with NCB protection)
	No claims	One claim within the policy period	Two claims within the policy period	Three claims within the policy period
4	5	4	4	2
5	6	5	5	3
6	7	6	6	4
7	8	7	7	5
8	9	8	8	6
9	10	9	9	7

Note: In the table above a claim is where we've made payment for any loss, damage or injury caused to a third party or where any costs paid for damage to your vehicle can't be, or haven't yet been, recovered.

If you have a minor incident with another person, but you are not claiming for the damage to or loss of your vehicle, another person may still make a claim against your policy. In these circumstances we may not allow your no-claims bonus until we are confident no claim will be made.

Cancelling your policy

If you cancel your policy

If you cancel your policy within 14 days of buying it or receiving your documents (whichever is later), we'll refund the amount paid that relates to the exact number of days left on the policy, less an administration charge of £10 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time). We'll also do this if you cancel your policy within 14 days after its renewal date. If you tell us before the renewal date that you do not want to renew your policy, and you have already made a payment, we'll give you a full refund.

If you cancel the policy at any other time (by letting us or your broker know), and you've paid for your policy in full by a single payment, we'll refund the exact number of days left on your policy, less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

If you've chosen to pay for your insurance policy by instalments you must continue to pay your monthly direct debit. We'll refund any overpayment, less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

If any claim has been made by or against you in the current period of insurance, we won't refund any amount you've paid.

When we or your broker may cancel the policy

We, (or your broker,) may cancel your policy by sending you seven days' written notice, either by email or to your last known address, if we (or they) have a good reason for doing so. For example, your policy may be cancelled if you:

- do not make a payment for your insurance policy when it is due;
- do not provide proof of your no-claims discount or your vehicle's security;
- give us incorrect information, and fail to put this right when we ask you to; and
- use threatening or abusive behaviour or language, or are threatening, abusive or intimidating towards our staff or suppliers.

If we, (or your broker,) cancel your policy, we'll refund the amount paid for the exact number of days left on the policy, less an administration charge of £32 plus Insurance Premium Tax (at the rate that applies at the time).

You won't receive a refund if you've made a claim, or any claim is expected, in the current period of insurance.

If we (or your broker) cancel your policy because of fraud, we do not have to give you notice and we may keep any amount you've paid. We may also tell the police about the fraud.

General exclusions

Please read this page for details of when you won't be covered.

What is an exclusion?

Exclusions list specific events, circumstances or situations where we don't provide cover for loss, damage or liability. Exclusions protect us from unreasonable risk. They apply to all sections of the policy.

This policy won't provide cover or benefits under the following circumstances.

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability which happens while your vehicle is being:

- used for a purpose which isn't allowed by the current certificate of insurance (for example, racing);
- driven by, or is in the charge of, a person who has your permission to drive but isn't named on the certificate of insurance as a named driver;
- driven by a person who does not hold a valid driving licence;
- driven by a person who isn't keeping to the conditions of their driving licence;
- driven by a person who has previously been disqualified from driving and has not reapplied for and received their licence from the issuing authority;
- used to take part in a crime (unless your vehicle has been stolen);
- used in a place where aircrafts take off, land, park or move, including airport service roads that the general public aren't allowed to use;
- used in a race, speed trial, rally, track day or similar motor sporting event, or used in connection with any event at the Nürburgring circuits; or
- used in an unsafe or unroadworthy condition or without valid tax or a valid MOT (if it must have one by law).

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability arising from an incident if you or anyone insured under the policy is convicted of driving while under the influence of alcohol or drugs or refusing to supply a sample when required to do so by law. We have the right to recover from you any amounts we pay before you (or the insured driver) are convicted or which we have to pay by law.

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Act for the situations shown above.

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability which is a direct or indirect result of the following.

- Invasion, act of foreign enemy, conflict, war (whether or not war is declared), civil war, politically motivated unrest, rebellion, revolution, riot or similar event, confiscation or nationalisation by any government or other authority, except when required by the Road Traffic Act
- Earthquake, riot or civil disturbance outside Great Britain, the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Act for the events shown above.

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability that you are responsible for by law, which is the result of the following.

- Ionising radiation or radioactive contamination from any nuclear fuel or from nuclear waste
- The radioactive, poisonous, explosive or other dangerous properties of any explosive nuclear equipment or any part of it
- A deliberate act by you or any person driving or using your vehicle
- Pressure waves caused by aircraft or other flying objects travelling at or above the speed of sound (which normally affects people who live close to airports or military bases)
- The commercial transportation of bulk hazardous materials such as:
 - liquefied petrol or gas

General exclusions

Please read this page for details of when you won't be covered.

- chemicals or gases in liquid, compressed or gaseous forms; and
- high explosives such as nitroglycerine, dynamite or any other similar explosives.
- Anything harmful contained in any goods or property being towed by, carried on, supplied from, loaded on, or unloaded from your vehicle
- Any harmful or incorrect medical treatment or help given at or from your vehicle

However, we will provide the cover needed under the Road Traffic Act for the incidents shown above.

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability which is the direct or indirect result of, or in any way connected with, the following.

- Any cyber act, regardless of any other cause or event that contributes to the loss, damage or liability
- Any loss of use of, reduction in performance of, or need to repair, replace, restore or reproduce, any data (including any amount relating to the loss in value of the data)
- Any liability that is covered by any other insurance relating to any cyber act or cyber incident

However, the exclusions above will not apply:

- in circumstances where we must provide cover under the Road Traffic Act;
- in circumstances where we must provide cover under any road traffic legislation in countries outside the territorial limits; or
- to any loss directly or indirectly caused by, contributed to by, resulting from or arising out of or in connection with any cyber incident.

We won't cover any legal liability which arises under a contract or agreement unless the person, company or firm covered under this policy would still have had that liability if the contract or agreement had not existed.

We won't cover any loss, damage or liability for which legal proceedings have started or a judgment has been given in a court outside the UK, unless the proceedings or judgment is in a foreign country because your vehicle was being used in that country and we had agreed to provide insurance in that country.

We won't cover any loss or damage caused by you not installing over-the-air (OTA) updates to your vehicle, as supplied by your vehicle's manufacturer. You must follow the manufacturer's instructions and load any safety-critical software or safety-related updates. If you don't, your policy won't be valid and we may cancel it and treat it as if it had never existed.

General conditions

Please read this page to find out how to make sure your policy is valid.

Your duty

We'll only provide the insurance cover set out in this policy if:

- you keep to the conditions of the policy; and
- the statement of fact doesn't contain any fact or declaration which isn't true (as far as you know).

Changes in circumstances

You must tell us, as soon as possible, about any change in circumstances as this could affect your insurance cover.

Examples of changes you must tell us about include:

- any changes to your vehicle, including engine modifications and changes such as fitting alloy wheels, spoilers or skirts;
- any problem to do with the health of any person who will drive your vehicle, if the health condition must be reported to the DVLA;
- a motoring accident, insurance claim, motoring conviction or fixed penalty offence involving any person who will drive your vehicle;
- a change in ownership of your vehicle;
- a change in use of your vehicle;
- if any insured driver changes jobs;
- changes to your address or the address where your vehicle is usually kept; and
- changes to the number of vehicles owned or regularly driven by you or members of your family who live with you.

If a person whose details you haven't already given us is likely to drive your vehicle, you must give us their full details.

Please note that if you or we make any changes to your policy before the renewal date, you may have to pay an additional charge (including an administration fee of £15 and Insurance Premium Tax at the rate that applies at the time). If you want to make a change to your account before the renewal date, please speak to your insurance broker or other person acting on our behalf. They will be able to confirm any charges.

Please tell us as soon as possible if any of the details shown in your statement of fact change.

If you don't tell us about any changes, we may increase your premiums or refuse to pay all or part of a claim.

Other insurance

If any other insurance policies cover the same loss, damage or liability as this policy, we'll only pay our share of the claim.

Taking care of your vehicle and any trailer or caravan towed by your vehicle

You must take all reasonable steps to:

- prevent loss of or damage to any vehicle insured by the policy;
- keep your vehicle and any trailer or caravan towed by your vehicle in a safe and roadworthy condition; and
- make sure any advanced driver-assistance systems (ADAS) fitted by the manufacturer are calibrated (adjusted) and updated to the manufacturer's standard. (Some examples of ADAS are electronic stability control, anti-lock brakes, lane-departure warning, adaptive cruise control and traction control.)

Our right to recover a payment from you

If we have to settle a claim under the law of any country and we wouldn't have paid that claim under the terms of this policy, we can recover from you the amount of any payment we have had to make.

Fraud

We won't pay any claim you make if:

- it is dishonest;
- it is exaggerated; or
- you or any insured driver makes a false statement or provides false documents to support a claim (or knowingly allows someone else to do this).

We may also tell the police and your policy may be cancelled, as shown under 'Cancelling your policy'.

General conditions

Please read this page to find out how to make sure your policy is valid.

Claims procedure

After any loss, damage or accident, you and any person insured by this policy must:

- report the incident to us as soon as possible by phoning our Claims Helpline on 0330 024 2240;
- give us all the information and help that we ask for, including details of anyone else involved;
- send us every letter, claim or legal document immediately without answering it; and
- tell us immediately if there is to be a prosecution, inquest or other court proceedings.

Defending or settling a claim

You mustn't admit liability for any loss or damage, or make any offer to pay any claim. We can decide exactly how to carry out any legal proceedings or settle any claim. We can also:

- take over and defend or settle any claim in the name of any person, company or firm insured by the policy; and
- take legal action in your name, or in the name of any person, company or firm insured by the policy, to get back any payment we make.

If your vehicle belongs to someone else, or is under a hire or lease agreement, we'll make any payment due under this policy to the legal owner.

Vehicle sharing

This policy doesn't insure anyone to use your vehicle for hire or reward (that is, in return for payment). However, if passengers in your vehicle make a payment towards the cost of a journey, we won't class this as use for hire or reward as long as:

- your vehicle isn't designed or adapted to carry more than five people, including the driver;
- the passengers aren't being carried in the course of the business of carrying passengers; and
- the total of the payments made by all the passengers doesn't lead to you or an insured driver making a profit.

Service and repair

This policy will continue to provide insurance cover for you, under Section 2 : Legal liability to other people, while your vehicle is being serviced or repaired by a motor trader.

However, the insurance cover for other people, companies or firms referred to in section 2 won't apply.

Other sections of the policy which apply for the type of cover shown in your schedule will also continue to apply if your vehicle is being driven by an insured driver or isn't being driven at the time of the incident.

Paying for your insurance

If you haven't paid for your full insurance policy and you make a claim under this policy, we may deduct the amount you still owe from the amount we pay to settle your claim.

Renewing your policy

We may automatically renew your policy on the renewal date. If we do this, we'll write to you before the renewal date with details of the renewal terms.

If you pay for your insurance policy by Direct Debit, payments will continue to be taken from your bank account for the renewal price. If you don't want to renew your policy, you must tell us (or your broker) before the renewal date. We'll then refund any payment we've taken for your renewal premium. If you don't want to renew, but you don't tell us until after the renewal date, we'll work out the refund as though you had cancelled your policy (see the 'Cancelling your policy' section).

The price you pay when you take out a new policy with us is calculated based on prices that apply at that time.

The price may increase on each renewal date.
