STARR LONDON

Management Liability

Companies and their directors and officers face increasingly complex risks. We provide tailored D&O solutions that protect individuals and safeguard company balance sheets, with coverage designed for mid-market to large corporates across a wide range of industries. Operating across both Lloyd's and company platforms, we offer flexible solutions on a primary and excess basis globally.

Market Leading Capacity

Maximum limits

Up to USD 25m

Risk Appetite

- Commercial companies across diverse industry sectors, including publicly traded entities
- Mid-market to large corporates
- Offering Directors & Officers Liability, Employment Practices Liability, Pension Trustees Liability, Public Offering of Securities and Crime cover

Cover

- Directors & Officers Liability (Side ABC): provides defence costs and indemnity for directors and officers, and securities cover for the company, in respect of litigation, regulatory investigations and securities actions
- Coverage includes damages, settlements and judgements, legal fees and expenses, regulatory investigations, derivative actions, securities claims, security holder demand costs and extradition proceedings
- Side A Difference in Conditions (DIC): dedicated protection for directors and officers where the company is unable to indemnify, with minimal exclusions (typically limited to conduct)

- Operates on an excess or drop-down basis where underlying limits are exhausted or where the primary policy does not respond, including scenarios such as coverage disputes, insurer insolvency or delayed payment
- Employment Practices Liability, Pension Trustees Liability and Public Offering of Securities: protection against employment-related claims, trustee exposures and securities issuance risks
- Crime: cover for losses arising from employee or third-party fraud and dishonesty
